Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

National Tourism Week is May 2-6. Chamber members had an opportunity to hear a tourism assessment of Heppner during a recent meeting. The suggestion was to create a sportsman's destination community offering farm/ranch recreation opportunities. That of course, takes active participants and interested ranchers who are anxious to host visitors and send ehtm into Heppner to shop, visit our museum, etc. Those surveyed seemed to agree that they didn't wish to become a Sisters or Leavenworth; however, being attractive to visitors on a small scale would benefit our local businesses and retailers. The following ideas surfaced to encourage families to make Heppner their destination "where rural is for real": paddle boats at the lake, miniature golf (leprechaun land), remote-controlled boat race events at the lake, cross-country ski-trails; trees and a wheelchair accessible path all around the lake catering to both volkswalkers and handicapped. Shorty's museum, ranch experiences and the list goes on.

Our comfort zone has been threatened and above all Heppner needs diversity both in industry and recreation. That means some creative brainstorming is needed to come up with viable ideas to attract all types of visitors to Heppner, those who will come to visit and those who will create jobs.

In conjunction with National Tourism Week, an Oregon Rural Loop Tour Project (Regional Tourism Workshop) is scheduled for Wednesday, May 11, at the Pendleton Convention Center. The purpose will be to develop a tour package organized around a series of tourist centers in rural communities where visitors would have options ranging from guided tours of forests, to visiting ranches to learning about our rural environment from those who know it best, the local people who live and work in the area. Everyone is welcome to attend. Time is 9 a.m. to 12 noon and the cost is free.

Next week: Chamber business and board meeting.

Thought for the week: "There is no hopeless situations, only people who are hopeless about them".

fourth-Heather Davis.

Poles: first-Angela Munkers, second-Kathleen Greenup, third-Jill Barber, fourth-Heather Davis.

Put 'n' Take: first-Angela Munkers, second-Jill Barber, third-Heather Davis, fourth-Kathleen Greenup.

13 and 14 year olds: barrels, first-Jaylene Papineau, second-Brenda Holtz, third-Dawn Boor, fourth-Shannon Walton.

Poles: first-Jaylene Papineau, second-Shannon Walton, third-Brenda Holtz, fourth-Dawn Boor.

Put 'n' Take: first-Jaylene Papineau, second-Shannon Walton, third-Dawn Boor, fourth-Brenda Holtz.

15 and 17 year olds: barrels and poles, first-Stormy Howard, second-Char Coe, third-Jennifer Rankin; put 'n' take, first-Stormy Howard, second-Char Coe.

18 and over: barrels, first-Dick Temple, second-Shelly Ashbeck, third-Mary Westberg, fourth-Terri Gentry.

Poles: first-Dick Temple, second-Shelly Ashbeck, third-Terri Gentry, fourth-Mary Westberg.

Put 'n' Take: first-Dick Temple, second-Terri Gentry, third-Shelly Ashbeck.

Following the timed events participants goat tied and steer dobed.

The final spring playday will be Sunday May 1.

Friday night playdays will begin in June at the Wranglers Grounds located in Hwy. 74.
