Nature

Conservancy

seeks volunteers

A work party is planned Sunday, May 15 by the Nature Conservancy, at the Lindsay Prairie, near Boardman to help eradicate noxious weeds while viewing the native wildflowers.

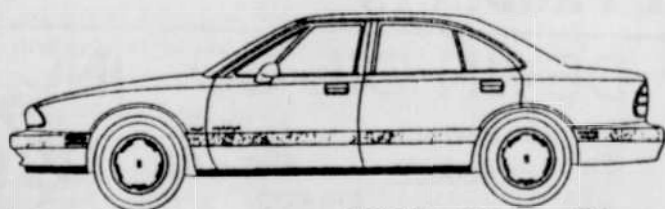

The Nature Conservatory is seeking volunteers to join one-day and two-day work parties to maintain biologically significant natural areas in northeast Oregon. Participants should dress for the weather, bringing sunhats and sunscreen, water, lunch, gloves and tools if possible. Work parties will be supervised by the Conservancy's range ecologist Berta Youtie. For directions and additional information contact Youtie or volunteer coordinator Irene Froyd at 962-3903.

The Nature Conservancy is a non-profit membership organization that preserves animals, plants and natural communities representing the diversity of life on earth by protecting the lands and waters they need to survive.
