Ione tennis teams end season

By Anne Morte

The Ione tennis teams finished the regular season playing matches against Arlington Tuesday, May 10.

Arlington won all but one match, the boys singles, where Thomas Voegeding defeated Bryan Escobedo, 6-1, 6-3. Mike Green lost a close one to Dan Smythe in the other singles match 7-9.

In boys doubles Jory Crowell and Kelly Morgan fell to Smythe and Matt Hanan 3-6, 3-6.

With both girls singles players at Outdoor school, the girls played just two doubles matches, losing both. Laurel Temple and Celeste Owen lost to Dena Robinson and Sarah Hansford, 1-6, 2-6. Camie Crum and Angie Ball fell to Lyndsey Bufton and Stephanie Chamberlain 3-6, 1-6.

Student-parent exchange cancelled

The Partners in Education parent-student swap has been postponed. Heppner High School principal Steve Dickenson has announced. The exchange day was planned for May 18.

Dickenson said that the 21st Century Schools Site Committee still supports the parent-student exchange day, but because it is such a busy time of the year, the committee now plans to reschedule it in the fall.

In the exchange, a student who is able to have a parent or other member of the community attend school for him, may stay home for the day. The parent attends a shortened version of the student's school day and learns more about his child's education.

Dickenson said that he appreciates those who signed up for the exchange and apologizes for any inconvenience the rescheduling has caused.

He says that perhaps the exchange program can be scheduled on a Friday, when the students will not be attending school because of the new four-day student week.

For more information or to offer suggestions on the program, call Dickenson, 676-9138, or visit with any member of the site committee.
