Obituary

Effie L. Snabel Stirewalt

Funeral services for Effie L. Snabel Stirewalt will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, May 21, 1994 at the Assembly of God Church in Spray. Interment will follow at Winlock Cemetery near Spray. Mrs. Stirewalt, 77, of Spray, died Monday, May 16, 1994 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner, OR.

She was born May 5, 1917 on the family homestead at Spray, OR. to Ezra and Sarah Hope Kirby Snabel, the sixth of nine children. She was raised and attended school at Spray. Her 1932 champion basketball team was undefeated. Effie graduated from Spray High School in 1935.

She was employed for a time at Montgomery Ward in Portland.

On Feb. 9, 1940, she married James McFadden Stirewalt at Fossil. Their first home was on Sourdough Ridge in Wheeler Co. They moved to Kimberly in 1946 and back to the Snabel Homestead in 1972, where she resided until the time of her death.

She was clerk for the Winlock school for two years. 4-H played a big part in her life. She was a 4-H leader in both Wheeler and Grant counties for 34 years, receiving numerous awards. Her clubs included cooking, sewing, outdoor cookery, bachelor sewing, and food preservation. Effie was a member of Home Extension and instrumental in getting the first agent in Grant County. She was also on seven county committees. A few of the Extension classes she taught were sewing, tailoring, cooking and cake decorating which was a specialty at holidays, birthdays, showers, weddings and anniversaries. She always helped at the school with athletic activities, cake walks and room-mother. Effie's large garden supplied family and friends.

Effie and Jim helped start the first Spray Rodeo and they have always been active members with Effie in charge of the Queen and Court, also making their suits for 12 years. The Eastern Oregon Pioneer Assoc. gave her the honor of being Pioneer Queen on July 20, 1991 at Julia Henderson Park.

Survivors include her husband, Jim, at the home; daughters, Judy Bertsch of Stanfield, Dina Naydo, Lula Daniels both of Sisters, Elizabeth Parke of Beaverton, Nancy Wilson of Fossil; son, James II of Terrebonne; sisters Pansie Michel of Powell Butte, Della Stirewalt, Hermiston and Ellen Nash of Stanfield; 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions, for those who wish, may be made to the Spray Ambulance Fund, P.O. Box 123, Spray, OR 97874. Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, is in charge of arrangements.

Marie Dae McQuarrie

Marie Dae McQuarrie, Roseburg, formerly of Heppner, died at her home on May 10, 1994 after a lengthy illness. She was 77 years old.

Mrs. McQuarrie was born January 18, 1917 at Great Falls, Montana, to Milton and Lucy Jackson Lehner. She married Clinton McQuarrie on August 17, 1937, at Missoula, Montana. She attended Missoula County High School and Kinman Business School. She was secretary to the owner of Kinzua Pine Mill in Kinzua. During World War II, Marie moved to Arlington awaiting Clinton's arrival from Germany. Eight years later they bought Central Market in Heppner. While there she was a member of the Episcopal Church, Soroptimist International of Heppner. She was an avid golfer at the Willow Creek Golf Course where she had two hole in ones. They retired in 1976 and spent many winters in Yuma, Arizona before moving to Roseburg in 1986.

She is survived by her husband Clinton at the home; daughter, Susan Reisman and her husband Keith of Roseburg; son Daniel and his wife JoAnn of Portland; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Community Cancer Foundation, PO Box 2038, Roseburg, 97470.

Wilson's Chapel of the Roses, Roseburg, was in charge of arrangements.
