

VanLiew earns top sheep awards

Sandra Van Liew with her sheep

Sandra Van Liew, Windy Acres of Heppner, received top awards at the Black Sheep Gathering in Eugene June 23-26 showing her Jacob sheep. Van Liew received champion Jacob ram and champion Jacob ewe. Her fleeces placed second, third and fifth. Van Liew is currently serving on the board of directors for the Jacob Sheep Breeders Association for the Northwest region.

The Umatilla County Fair in Hermiston, Aug 11-14 will have a Rare Breed Card Grading Sheep show, which Van Liew is coordinating as well as serving as evaluator for the card grading. Card grading involves evaluating each animal in comparison with the breed standard. Then the blue carded or excellent animals compete in the show ring for champion and reserve champion.

For more information contact Van Liew, 676-5050

Baptist VBS to begin

"Outback Odyssey" highlighting the land "down under" will be the Vacation Bible School theme for Lexington Baptist Church at 150 E Arcade, Lexington. VBS will be held Aug. 1 through Aug 5 from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm. "Many have heard about Koalas, platypuses, and kangaroos but have you heard about emus, wombats and dingoes?" asks a spokesperson for the church. Kids will discover God's answers to life's questions through Bible lessons, singing, crafts, scripture memorization and recreation.

There is no charge for this VBS program. All kids from four years old to the sixth grade are invited to attend. For more information contact Sandy Van Liew, at 676-5050, or Glenn Anderson 989-8555.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BEFORE THE MORROW COUNTY COURT OF MORROW COUNTY
AN ORDINANCE REQUIRING THE CONTAINMENT OF SOLID WASTE WHICH IS DELIVERED TO COUNTY TRANSFER STATIONS AND IMPOSING PENALTY FOR VIOLATION ORDINANCE NO.

WHEREAS, ORS 203.035 authorizes Morrow County to exercise authority within the County over matters of County concern; and

WHEREAS, Morrow County has established a solid waste transfer station on Highway 74 approximately 2 miles south of Lexington Oregon; and

WHEREAS, persons have been transporting solid waste to said transfer station which is not contained or covered, resulting in substantial littering along the roadways leading to the transfer station; and

WHEREAS, Morrow County has previously established fees for the deposit of solid waste at said transfer station; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the people of Morrow County to inhibit and diminish the littering of the roadways leading to the transfer station;
THE COUNTY COURT OF MORROW COUNTY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. TITLE OF ORDINANCE

This ordinance shall be known, and may be cited, as "The Penalty for Transporting Uncontained Solid Waste Ordinance".

SECTION 2. IMPOSITION OF ADDITIONAL FEE.

The caretakers of the solid waste transfer station located approximately 2 miles south of Lexington on Highway 74, shall impose, in addition to any regular fee assessed for the deposit of solid waste at said transfer station, a penalty in the sum of $5.00 upon each load or deposit which is brought to the transfer station and which is not covered or is not contained so as to prevent leakage, spillage or loss during transport.

SECTION 3. DISPOSITION OF ASSESSMENT.

All moneys collected pursuant to this ordinance shall be deposited to the Solid Waste Transfer Station line item in the General Fund of the County, which is line item number 101-123-340-4378 in the Morrow County budget.

SECTION 4. EFFECTIVE DATE.

In compliance with the provisions of ORS 203.045, this ordinance shall take effect on the 90th day after the date of its adoption.

Obituaries

Ralph M. "Tuck" Jackson

Graveside services were held Saturday, July 16 at the Haystack Cemetery near Spray for Ralph M. "Tuck" Jackson. Mr. Jackson, 78, died of cancer at his home in Spray Thursday, July 14.

Born February 24, 1916 at Hillsboro, he was a veteran of the second world war and commander of the Spray American Legion. He was an active member of the Spray Rodeo Association. He served on the Spray city council.

Tuck spent many years working with the Harley Tucker Rodeos. He also worked as caretaker for the Spray School District. Most of all Tuck enjoyed visiting with his many friends, fishing and wood working in his shop.

Tuck is survived by his wife, Alice at the home; step-daughter, Carol Asher of Spray; nephew Ken Carleson of Beaverton and many grandchildren.

Driskill Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

James B. Johnston

James B. "Sam" Johnston, 73, of Heppner, died Friday, July 15, 1994 at his home.

Recitation of the rosary was Monday July 18 at the St. Patrick Catholic Church in Heppner. Funeral Mass was Tuesday, July 19 at the church with concluding service and burial at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mr. Johnston was born March 12, 1921, at Heppner, to Allen and Mary McDaid Johnston. He grew up in Heppner and attended local schools, graduating from Heppner High School in 1940.

He entered the military and served with the U.S. Army during World War II, returning to Heppner in 1945.

On July 8, 1947, he married Lois M. Vance at Lewiston, Idaho. They lived in Heppner where he worked at Kinzua Mill for 33 years retiring in 1977. He also did janitorial work at the Bank of Eastern Oregon for several years.

He was a member of the Pendleton Eagles Lodge.

Survivors include daughters, Jennifer Morrell of Hermiston and Pamela Partlow of Boardman; sons, Richard and Gregory, both of Heppner; sister, Annie Wilson of Heppner; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. His wife Lois, died in 1991 and a half-brother and several half-sisters also died earlier.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Hospital Foundation, PO Box 515, Heppner 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

Bikes skateboards prohibited downtown

Riding skateboard and bikes is prohibited on the sidewalks in the city of Heppner. Police chief Doug Rathbun reminds parents to inform your children of this rule as this is a danger to pedestrians and customers emerging from stores.
