Bob Nairns of Heppner.

The Heppner volunteer firemen described the situation at Grass Valley as "hell, just chaos", citing organizational problems. They said that their major objective was to protect structures from damage. Helicopters dropped water on the fire, but the Heppner firemen credit the farmers in the area with finally stopping the fire. At one point, they said the fire was burning a mile in less than three minutes.

CARD OF THANKS

It is hard to express the gratitude I feel, to my relatives and friends, since my accident. I feel fortunate at best, that I am doing really well.

I'd like to thank the EMT's that came after me and transported me to St. Anthonys, the Drs. and staff at both St. Anthonys and Pioneer Memorial Hospital. I also want to thank all who sent flowers, gifts, cards, food and phone calls and came to see me.

I also owe a special thanks to Jim and GeorgeAnn, for all their caring and food preparation; also for babysitting with me when Jack couldn't be there.

Also a grateful thank you to

Kit and Shirley for giving us their home before I could return to our home in the mountains.
