

12 reasons to attend Fair Gate passes replace buttons Style Revue Thurs., Aug. 18

A dozen reasons to attend the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo:

1. Great weather, good food.
2. Lots of action in the arena, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
3. See your friends and neighbors perform during the Talent Show.
4. Dance to The Lansings on Saturday night.
5. Enjoy all kinds of refreshments.
6. You might spot Ty Murray in the arena, who knows.

7. See the show quality animals raised by 4-H and FFA kids so you can brag on your children and grandchildren.
8. View the Open Class exhibits.

9. Come Sunday and have a cowboy breakfast prepared by The Wranglers.

10. See the 1994 Chevy pickup being raffled and buy a ticket.

11. You need a reason to skip housework.

12. Good excuse to get with your friends.

Another change for this year's Fair is a gate pass instead of a button. The gate pass is $10 and will get you into all four days of the Fair and the Morrow County Rodeo on Sunday afternoon. The passes are available at the Fair Office. Office hours are Monday thru Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Katie Bacon (l) and Marissa McCabe are ready to 'strut their stuff' in competition

The Thursday evening 4-H Public Fashion Revue is always a pleasure to attend, and the 1994 event is bigger than ever. "The 4-H Youth Development Program offered two modeling workshops in the 1993-94 program year," says Carol Michael-Bennett, "and it definitely made an impact in the self-confidence of county youth."

Ninety-one youth, an all-time high, have entered the two modeling contests. "My Favorite Outfit" is a contest that promotes consumer skills: clothing selection and coordination, as well as poise and self confidence. Members may have constructed or purchased their garments for this contest, which is open to all 4-H members, regardless of project area.

"Fashion Revue" is open to all clothing, knitting and crocheting project members. These contestants model garments that they have constructed. Modeling in Fashion Revue is a component of the "Outstanding Clothing Member" award.

Participants in both contests prepare their own narrative to be read during the public show. The winning models are selected during the contest judging on Monday, August 15.

Be sure to attend the 4-H Public Fashion Revue: 7 p.m., Thursday, August 18, at the Outdoor Stage behind the Sanck-Shack. A special addition this year will be Rachel Shull, 1994 Nation Junior Wool Ambassador. She will model her national prize winning "Make It Yourself With Wool" outfit, and encourage local youth to participate in the 1994 contest.

In case of rain, the event will be moved to the Parish Hall of St. Patrick's Church in Heppner.
