

Mustangs continue to win, beat Elgin 12-8

Chris Dickenson, 33, gets tripped up by an Elgin player last Friday in Elgin. Dickenson ran the ball for 51 yards.

The Heppner Mustangs made it 3-0 in pre-season football contests as they traveled to Elgin Friday, Sept. 16 and came out a 12-8 victory.

The same author could have written the script for each of the Mustangs' pre-season games. The opponents dominated early, scoring first and making it tough on the Mustangs. The Mustangs regrouped at half time and scored in the second half to take the lead and bend but not break to win the game.

The Elgin Huskies hogged the ball the first half with senior Jason Lathrop and junior Chad Thompson combining on two long drives to move the ball on the ground and keep it away from the Mustangs.

The second drive, a nine play 58 yard march, put Elgin ahead late in the first quarter. Lathrop scored from two yards out with 2:44 in the quarter for a 6-0 lead. He carried the ball five times during the drive for 36 yards. Lathrop scored the two point pat on a bumbled kick attempt and Elgin led, 8-0.

The Mustangs' offense was stagnant in the first half, but they almost got on the board anyway. Junior running back Rod Zumwalt ripped off a 10 yard gain and quarter back Brian Koffler hit senior Bill Schlaich with a 45 yard pass completion to the Huskies' 12 yard line. The drive ended with Koffler being intercepted with 1:57 remaining in the half.

Defensive end Ethan Burnside got the Mustangs going with a fumble recovery early in the second half. Heppner moved quickly, needing only seven plays to go 54 yards for the score. The entire backfield got into the act with full back Chad Kroch gaining 14 yards on two carries, senior Chris Dickenson driving nine yards and half back Shaun Hisler gaining 20 yards on two carries. Koffler scored on a keeper. The pat pass was incomplete and Elgin led, 8-6.

The Mustangs scored again early in the fourth quarter with Dickenson getting loose on a 40 yard touchdown romp. Big plays in the drive were an option keeper for nine yards by Koffler and a Koffler to Schlaich 30 yard completion. The pat was no good and Heppner led for the first time, 12-8.

Heppner's defense continued to give up ground but stopped the Huskies in critical situations. Seniors Jon Hanna and John Qualls both came up with big plays to slow down Elgin. Lineman Chris Sykes jumped on a Scott Allen fumble late in the ballgame to preserve the win.

Heppner turns to league play, Friday, September 23, as they travel to Umatilla to take on the Vikings. Umatilla is 1-1 on the season, beating the Union Bobcats, 28-22 and losing to the Imbler Panthers 13-0. The Vikings run out of a spread offense and are inexperienced this year. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Milt Durran Field.

Lady Cards take second

By Anne Morter

The lone Lady Cardinals took second place in last weekend's Wantonka Tournament held at The Dalles. After a slow start, lone lost their opening match but came back to win the next two matches during a long and tiring day of volleyball. Allison Sullivan and Melissa McElligott were named to the tournament all-star team.

The Lady Cards opened against Corbett, a tall, hard-hitting 2A team. The Cardinals were slow to warm up, finding themselves down 0-9 in the first game. Coach Charity McElligott was heartened by the team's rally that brought them back into contention and even ahead of their opponent at one time. But Corbett proved to be too tough, holding off lone, 16-14. Corbett kept the momentum in the second game, posting a 15-8 score to take the match.

The Cards served 90 percent in that game, led by Kimberly Bedortha with 7-7 serving. Jessica Stefani also had 100 percent hitting at the net and Suzie Heideman led the team with two stuffs.

The second game pitted the Lady Cards against league opponent, Condon. Coach McElligott was able to test her substitutes against the rebuilding Lady Blue Devils and she liked what she saw in the 15-11, 16-14 win. "The Subs were ready to play. They really boosted the team effort," she noted.

Lynde Minster came off the bench to the setter position, setting 84 percent. Stefani had 100 percent in the serve receive department. Sullivan served 100 percent on four attempts and Bedortha was seven for eight. The team had 100 percent blocking with McElligott and Heideman accounting for two stuffs each.

The Lady Cards finished the day defeating the tournament host, Wah-tonks, 15-9, 8-15, 15-12. Coach McElligott noted that the team got better and better as the day went on, and they needed to be, to go three games at the end of the day. Bedortha continued to be the day's most consistent server, with 100 percent serving, two aces and 14 points. Sullivan was 5-5 from the service line and Mary Jane McCarty was perfect on four serves. Brenda Holtz also had some good serves, making four of five. Overall the team served 88 percent.

McElligott and Heideman led in hitting with two and three kills respectively. The team had 100 percent team blocking led by Heideman with two stuffs and Minster and McElligott with one each.

"I was really tickled," said Coach McElligott of her team's performance.

The Lady Cards play Dufur Friday, Sept. 23 in lone. Game time is 5 p.m.
