

Local students earn scholarships

Lori Straley of Heppner has been selected the winner of the Berkely-Despain Fund Scholarship. Chisana Warren, Ione, received the Mary Johns scholarship. The Blue Mountain Community College Scholarship Committee selected award winners for the Berkely-Despain Fund Scholarship, the Mary Johns Scholarship, and the David and Maria Nelson Memorial Scholarship. Each winner was awarded $1080 for the 1994-95 academic year.

Desires Straley, the Berkely-Despain winners include, Jason Sheadel, Boardman; Angela Christman, Helix; Karen King and Rozanne Lomis of Hermiston; Richard Young, Milton-Freewater, Lore Martin, Lynnetta Gibson, Tamara Schulze, and Paula Spain of Pendleton.

The Berkely-Despain fund was established in memory of Norborne Berkely, a former resident of the Pendleton area. He was a descendant of a pioneering family who settled in the Umatilla/Morrow County region. Berkeley was a professor emeritus in history at Oregon State University.

Mary Johns winners include Melodye Berry, Hermiston; Elaine Austin, Pendleton; and Jackie Bain-Bowen, Pilot Rock.

Dennis Swanson retires from flying

The Jim Swanson and Kenny Turner families attended the retirement party for Dennis Swanson in Auburn WA. Oct 8.

Around 150 families and relatives were present for a barbeque put on by Ray Lindstrom of Auburn who owns and operates a catering service in Auburn.

Dennis Swanson, son of Irene Swanson, Heppner, had flown for N.W. Orient 27 years as well as four years in the Air Force.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, chamber manager

From Heppner to Anacortes to Leavenworth to Lewiston to Lincoln City, a marathon vacation and back to piles of mail and phone calls at the Chamber office. We enjoyed our St. Pat's auction purchase. I should have kept quiet, it may not be so easy to get this March.

Plans are underway for a great Town & Country celebration, scheduled for Wednesday, January 11. A Beef Blitz program, Livestock Growers meeting and Oregon Field Guide presentation are just a few of the day's events the committee is planning. It's not too early to be thinking about nominating the man, woman, business and educator of the year. Chamber recognizes these people for the contribution they have made to our community. There are many volunteers quietly going about their business who deserve to be honored. Take a minute to nominate them.

Heppner's St. Pat's Committee is hard at work. Next year will be a Ewe-do Bingo, a possible bartender's race, and moving the auction to Sunday in conjunction with the barbecue. It is also rumored that a number of live leprechauns will be running around this year and that the Tri-City Rods and Roaders wish to participate in our parade (1937 to 1955 cars). A member called the Chamber office to find out Wee Bit O'Ireland celebration dates and said "my family and I have never enjoyed ourselves so much as we did the past couple of years in Heppner."

Come to town early for the home game Oct. 28. Merchants will be holding their Moonlight Spooktacular and McGruff will greet children from 5 to 7:30 p.m.

Next week Sally Wiens, Eastern Oregon Regional Arts Council director, will be the program.

Thought for the week: "The past, the present, the future are really one...they are today",

This scholarship was made possible by the late Mary Johns, a longtime resident of Umatilla County.

David and Maria Nelson winners are Jackie Pishion and Timothy McCormick, both of Pendleton. Because McCormick will attend BMCC fall and winterterm only, he will receive $720 instead of $1080. The David and Maria Nelson Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of David and Maria Nelson, pioneer residents of Umatilla County. The Nelsons were active members of this community and were vitally responsible in helping improve schools, roads, rural electrification, farming practices, and communication.

Doug Rice, Spanish instructor at Blue Mountain Community College, recently had an article published in the "Hands on Language", a trade journal for Pacific Northwest Council on Foreign Languages.
