

A decorated pumpkin patch

The Lone School kindergarten and first grade classes prepared for Halloween by decorating pumpkins. The pumpkins were from Ron Palmateer's pumpkin patch at Lone. Each year Palmateer treats the primary children to pumpkins at Halloween.

First Christian church plans annual Harvest Festival dinner Oct. 30

The First Christian Church will hold its annual fund raiser, the Harvest Festival, Oct. 30 at 6:30 p.m. in the basement of the church. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Special guest speaker this year will be Gordon Thompson, missionary to the Dominican Republic.

Thompson, who is now residing in the Eugene, area, has been a missionary since 1948 and has served in such fields as Colegio Biblico in Eagle Pass, TX, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic. He and his wife, Vivian, were married in 1948 and have two grown daughters. He continues to translate materials into Spanish for use in the Dominican Republic and other Latin American countries.

Thompson will also bring the Sunday morning message on Oct. 30. Everyone is invited to fellowship at the church at that time. The church meets regularly at 11 a.m. at 293 N. Gale.

Dramatic monologue to be presented

"Catch the Vision of Freedom" is a dramatic monologue to be given this Sunday at the Hope-Valby Lutheran Parish. The monologue is about the life and ministry of Martin Luther, the German reformer of the 16th century Christian church. Oct. 30 is also Reformation Sunday.

Worship service at Valby Lutheran church is at 9 a.m. At 8:15 a.m. the Adult Bible Class will finish their study of the Book of Hebrews. Next week they begin a study of the Gospel of St. Luke. Sarah Carlson will accompany the congregation on the piano for the singing of the liturgy and the hymns.

Hope Lutheran church will celebrate worship service at 11 a.m. Dr. Jeanne Beretta will accompany the congregation on the piano for the singing of the hymns and liturgy. During the singing of the second hymn, children four years old through second grade will have junior church in the fellowship area.

On Friday, Adventures in Faith, a religious program for kindergarteners through sixth grade, will meet at Hope Church from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to study the meaning of Luke 12:48a. "From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked." They will also learn how it relates to their daily life. Adventurers are encouraged to bring a can of food to the Friday gathering.

School carnival this Thursday

The Heppner Parents Club school carnival will be held this Thursday, Oct. 27, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

Carnival booths, concessions, a haunted house and raffle items will be featured at the annual carnival. Tickets cost 25¢.

Students win Blazer tickets

Beth Baker (left), and Danielle McDowell, both Heppner Middle School sixth graders, participate in a "read-a-thon" as a part of the Blazer Reading program.

Around 60 fifth and sixth-graders took part in the Blazer Reading program which was held at the middle school from 3:45 to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 20. In addition to organizer Jannie Allen, middle school teacher, chaperones were Karla Waterland, aide, and Bill Ewing, middle school teacher.

In a special surprise at the conclusion of the Trail Blazer reading program at Heppner Middle School, six fifth and sixth grade students, who had read a certain number of books the first quarter of school, were selected in a drawing to attend a Trail Blazer game this Saturday, Oct. 29, in Portland. Names of students drawn from a hat were: Kevin Drake, Paula Spicerkuhn, Jodie Carlson, Kyle McDaniel and Camille Sykes.

Middle school teacher Jannie Allen has volunteered to drive the children to Portland to attend the game and offered to keep the group overnight at her home after a late night drive home from Portland.
