

Cards downed Antelopes in opener

Lady Cards in action at state championship in Springfield

Powers was formidable foe

By Anne Morter
Powers brought a formidable record and a formidable front row player to the state tournament in the form of 6'4" junior Jenny Mowa. The lady Cardinals had the opportunity to watch Powers on Friday and saw what they thought they might be the chink in the armor of the Cruisers, their semi-final opponent. Instead of trying to go through Mowa, when they played them Sat., Nov. 12, they tried going around and going over her. Mowa's teammates weren't able to respond when the ball made it by Mowa. The Cards used that advantage to win the physical, hard fought first game, 15-12. In the second game the lady Cards looked tired and began to make costly errors. Powers used that to their advantage, winning the game, 6-15. The third game the lady Cards' conditioning paid big dividends as they got their second wind, the Cruisers were wearing down and the Cards pounded out a 15-3 win to take the match.

The lady Cards served 92 percent as a team that game led by Kim Bedortha with 16-17 serving and 12 points. Allison Sullivan scored eight points on 12 of 13 serving and Mary Jane McCarty had five points on 15 of 16 serving.

Melissa McElligott led the team in the back row with 17 of 18 serve receives. Bedortha was 10 of 11 and Sullivan was 10 for 12 as the team recorded 92 percent.

McElligott also led the team in blocking with six including one stuff block against Mowa, the only one against her for the entire tournament. "It knocked her back a ways," noted coach McElligott. Suzie Heideman had two blocks.

Becky Wagenblast had 41 assists and McCarty had 22 to lead the team in setting. Lynde Minster came off the bench again, with some crucial sets in the second game.

At the net the Cardinals recorded 98 percent hitting, led by McElligott with 23 of 23 hitting and nine kills. Heideman was 100 percent on 11 hits with four kills and McCarty was 10 for 10 with two kills.

"Had we not been in shape, we would not have won that game," said coach McElligott of the physically punishing match. She said that the Cardinals needed a near perfect performance to capture the win.

Lone downs Dufur for championship

By Anne Morter
The title match held Saturday, Nov. 12 at Springfield for the State 1A volleyball championship turned out to be rather anti climactic after the rough and tumble Powers match as the lady Cards took out the Dufur Rangers in two games 15-7, 15-8. The serious and focused lady Cards were prepared for the Rangers in what was their third meeting this season. Both games were close until about the five point mark when Lone took command and even though Dufur had more time to rest, they failed to respond to the challenge. Coach Charity McElligott felt that Dufur for whatever reason, didn't play nearly to the level of the district championship or even their pre-season match.

Kim Bedortha led the scoring with seven points on nine of 10 serving. Becky Wagenblast scored five points on perfect eight for eight serving and Allison Sullivan didn't miss any of her serves also scoring five points.

Melissa McElligott was the back row leader with 100 percent serve receives on 11 tries. Mary Jane McCarty, who rarely receives serves, followed with six for six and Sullivan was six of seven.

The lady Cards continued to block well led by Heideman with seven blocks including five stuffs. McElligott and Sullivan had two stuff blocks each in the match.

Wagenblast paced the beam with 25 assists followed by McCarty with 16.

At the net, McElligott didn't miss any of her 15 hits and tallied three kills. Heideman was seven for seven with one kill and McCarty and Kim Bedortha both performed well in the front row with perfect eight for eight hitting.

An elated coach Charity McElligott couldn't have been more pleased with the end result. "Once we got past Powers, I felt we had a good chance at the title," she said, "and the lady Cards rose to the challenge. She said that it took a bit of time to get used to playing double courts (the 2A Tournament was taking place in the same gym), and concentrating with all the noise but the girls adjusted well. "I am just so proud of them. They did a great job," she said.

The lady Cardinals faced the Adrian Antelopes in their opening round game, played Friday, Nov. 11, and despite a case of the state tournament jitters the Cards won the match in three 15-6, 11-15, 15-8.

The Cards easily won the first game 15-6. But instead of settling down and polishing the Antelopes off in the second game the Cards turned "all nerves and couldn't get anything together," said coach Charity McElligott. While the Cards were struggling, Adrian made no mistakes, going on to win the game 15-11. But the lady Cards were in no mood to be derailed at this point, and came back to win the third game 15-8.

Mary Jane McCarty had a phenomenal scoring night with 22 points on perfect 27 of 27 serving. As a team, the Cardinals served 90 percent.

Kim Bedortha led the team in serve receives with 10 of 10 for 100 percent. Melissa McElligott was 15 for 18 in the back row as the team recorded an 88 percent serve receive stat.

The Cards recorded 100 percent blocking led by McElligott and Suzie Heideman with five stuffs each. Allison Sullivan added two stuff blocks.

McCarty paced the team with 91 percent setting and 31 assists, followed by Becky Wagenblast with 17 assists. Lynde Minster came off the bench in the second game with strong play for the Cards.

McElligott and Heideman led the team with two kills each as the Cards recorded 91 percent hitting. McCarty, Bedortha and Sullivan had one kill each.

"They were pretty determined to win. They knew they could do it," commented coach McElligott.
