

Just a Reminder

The month of November is a good time to have your septic tank pumped before your holiday company arrives and the winter weather sets in.

Ladybugs to hold craft sale

The Lady Bugs Craft sale will be held this Saturday, Nov. 26, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 305 Arcade St. in Lexington.

The craft sale originated in the early 1980s with the Heppner elementary school cooks and their daughters putting on the event. For a homier atmosphere, the sale is always held at the home of Betty Christman, co-organizer along with Lorene Montgomery. Both Christman's and Montgomery's daughters are still involved in the annual affair. Montgomery says that around 10 people participated this year.

The craft fair doesn't just feature Christmas items, but also all occasion gifts, and gift pack items.

Wheat commission plans meeting

The Oregon Wheat Commission will hold its next regular meeting on Wednesday, November 30, 1 p.m. at Red Lion Lloyd Center in the Halsey Room located at 1000 NE Multnomah, Portland.

The Oregon Wheat Commission complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The ADA prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities. Anyone who would like to attend the meeting, but who needs special accommodations, should contact the Oregon Wheat Commission office 48 hours in advance at (503) 229-6665 or TDD (503) 986-4762.

All commission meetings are open to the general public and anyone wishing to attend is welcome to do so.

Christmas punch promo to start

The annual Christmas Punch promotion starts this Friday at participating businesses in the area.

Rules are the same as last year. Pick up your card at any of the 13 participating businesses and then as you shop or buy around town for every five dollars in purchase, have your card punched.

When your card is full deposit the card at local businesses and be eligible for the weekly drawing for hundreds of dollars in gift certificates.

And don't forget all the cards will go into the pot for the big final drawing Dec. 22 where one lucky person will win $650 in gift certificates just in time for Christmas.

Participating businesses are: Central Market, Les Schwab, Coast to Coast, Court St. Market, Shoe Box, Peterson's, Gardner's Men's Wear, Murray Drugs, Country Rose, Morrow County Grain Growers, Pettyjohn's Farm and Builders Supply, Green Feed and Heppner Bowl.

Nordic Ski club to meet

A newly organized Arbutuck Nordic Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. at the Episcopal Church parish hall.

The meeting will be for the purpose of planning cross country skiing classes and other nordic skiing activities during the coming winter.

Those interested in joining are welcome to attend the meeting.

For more information contact John Edmundson, 676-5177.

Workshop at Boardman

Sixteen 4-H clothing leaders, two 4-H teen leaders and three OSU Extension agents gathered for a regional 4-H leader workshop at Riverside High School in Boardman November 12. Some were new 4-H Leaders, others were "veterans". A quick survey revealed 82 years worth of clothing leader expertise at the workshop. Attendees included Cara Osmin, Heppner; Laurie Barrow and Lorraine Ladd, Ione.

Five counties and 11 communities were represented. Bev Bingaman, Debbie Royer, Ann and Stephanie Fialka, Herminston; Darcie and Angie Timmons, Milton-Freewater; Roberta Anderson, Pilot Rock; Karen Hermanns, Irrigon; Barb Wetherell, Boardman; Karen Peterson, Condon; Holly Weimar, Clem; Julie Holt, Mitchell; and Marta Von Borstel and Anne Perkins of The Dalles.

Leaders Learned to develop judging contests and other consumer education activities to identify body line and proportion and select most flattering styles, contest textile science experiments; identified basic textile types, and learned tips for working with fancy fabrics. All leaders plan to use their new knowledge during the new 4-H project year.

The workshops were organized by Elva Madden, Wheeler County 4-H agent; Cindy Osterlund, Gilliam County 4-H agent and Carol Michael Bennett, Morrow County agent.
