The 7th annual Heppner Alumni Basketball and Volleyball tournament was a great success. The tournament brought in approximately $1,350 which will go to scholarships and Heppner youth programs. A group of community members put on a special banquet honoring Vietnam Veterans during the Alumni Tournament. Prior to the tournament, the Alumni Association Committee assisted with a youth basketball camp. This year the camp was put on with the proceeds going to the Vietnam Veteran banquet. The Alumni Association Committee would like to thank the community members for a successful banquet. We would also like to thank the community and all of those individuals who helped with the tournament. It wouldn't be possible without all of you! Plans for next years tournament will soon be underway. A closeout meeting of this year's tourney will be held Tuesday, Jan. 17, 7:30 p.m. at Columbia Basin. Anyone interested is encouraged to attend. If unable, please pass comments, suggestions and ideas to committee chairman Dana Reid or committee members Ken Eckman, Dave Alstott and Steve and Molly Rhea. Thanks again and see you next year.
