

Twice upon a time...

used paperbacks store - next to Heppner City Hall

How much do the books cost? One-half the original price.
Can I sell paperbacks there? You can get credit equal to one-fourth the original price for books in good shape.
What good will "credit" do me? You can use credit to help purchase other books.
Can I just trade in a couple of books for one I want? You have to pay for at least half your purchase (because the Bronsons can't pay the rent with trade-ins).
Can I take back the book I buy from them for credit? Yes.
Are their books old? Of the 4,000+ titles at the store, half have copyright dates from the last ten years. Over 1,000 books have copyrights from the last four years. Every week they are getting more books, old and recent publications!
What kinds of books do they have? Fiction and nonfiction.
Why are they open so late? So people who can't come by earlier in the day have a chance to get books.
 Open Tues-Fri. 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. / Saturday 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Dan Burnside plays defense against Umatilla

The Umatilla Vikings, placing four players in double figures, jumped out to an early lead and never looked back, as they beat the Heppner Mustangs, 71-55, Saturday night, Jan. 14, in Umatilla.

Dropping their third straight league game, the Mustangs couldn't seem to find the bucket, as they shot an ice cold 28 percent from the floor while the Vikings shot just under 50.

Trent Hughes led all scorers for the game, with 21, and Dan Burnside chipped in nine for the Mustangs.

Heppner managed to stay pretty close to the Vikings in the early going, when the score was 14 to 19 after one quarter and 29-38 at the half. The fourth quarter made the difference when Umatilla outscored the Mustangs, 18 to 12, to seal the victory. For Umatilla, Jim Kurtz scored 15, Leon Marler, 14, Shawn Tracy, 13, and Lee Lafferty, 11.

Others scoring for the Mustangs were: Chris Sykes, eight, Chris Dickenson and Eric Schonbachler, five, Ben Ewing, four, Brent Wright, two, and Justin Matteson, one.

Tina Kemp tries to stop pass in Umatilla game

The Heppner Fillies kept a position in the number one spot of the CBC basketball league with Sherman County, by defeating the Umatilla Vikings 42-49 last Saturday night, Jan. 14 in Umatilla.

The Heppner Fillies, coached by Mark Dowdy staged a fourth quarter comeback for the victory. Senior guard Kelsie Evans who scored a career high 31 points, racked up 11 final quarter.

The Vikings led by Alecia Johnson who had 15 points in the first half led 22-18 going into the locker room.

Heppner came out of the locker room fired up and chipped away at the Viking lead. Evans scored 10 points and Char Coe added four at the charity stripe to begin the fourth quarter down by two, 32-34. Coe finished the game with eight points and pulled down nine rebounds.

Johnson led the Vikings with 23 points followed by Kim Morris with 13.
