Christan Church schedules speakers

An "exciting" list of speakers and topics are coming up at the First Christian Church in Heppner during their Sunday morning worship service. A variety of speakers have been scheduled since former Pastor Roger Scharen's resignation. The congregation has heard from a banker on the topic of "Leaving your Baggage at the Door," a mechanic on "The Fruit of the Spirit"; and an eye witness account of God acting directly in the affairs of men.

Gary Laver from New Tribes Mission will speak Sunday, Feb. 19. A singing and sharing group from Boise Children's Ranch will be in Heppner on March 12 and Steve Hayley from Design Science Assoc. will speak on the activities of God on March 19.

Two more eye witness accounts of miracles in the lives of God's people are waiting a turn to be shared. Several pastors who are considering moving to Heppner will be speaking on Sundays not listed, said a church spokesperson.

Sunday school starts at 9:30 a.m. and worship begins at 11 a.m. A video on "Financial Freedom" is being shown Sunday evenings at 6:30.

The junior high and high school youth group meets at 5 p.m. on Sunday. Youth activities last year included a pack trip into the Wallowa Mountains and an all night trip to the Tri-Cities which included a hockey game. All youth are invited to attend the meetings and participate in activities. Youth group organizer is Rollie Marshall.

Hunter's safety course to begin

Openings are still available for the course on Handgun Proficiency through Blue Mountain Community College beginning March 1. The class will be held at the Morrow County School district office in Lexington on March 1, 8 and 15 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Students will receive classroom and range instruction from a certified police firearms instructor. The class satisfies proficiency requirements for obtaining a concealed weapons permit. Students must also complete a four hour firing session at a time to be set the first night of class. Gary Warren is the instructor for the class.

Cost of the class is $30 plus a $5 lab fee, payable to BMCC.

Also on the agenda for the end of winter term are the following classes:

Tin Punch Art is offered as a two hour seminar taught by Shannon Rust. Students will learn the decorative art of tin punching and will leave the class with a framed piece of art District Office in Lexington from 7-9 p.m.

Introduction to Computers is slated for February 25 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Lone High School. Terry Calvert of Calvert Computer Systems in Athena will teach this crash course in computer literacy. Students are offered a chance to learn the basics or refresh their skill. Calvert teaches basic computer terminology with plenty of "hands on" time. Cost is $42.

Shoebox to Photo Album will also be taught by Shannon Rust and will help student transform their stacks of photos into a treasured family album. Tips will be given on cropping, labeling, and long term storage. Cost is $10 tuition plus $5 lab fee paid to the instructor.

For more information on any of the classes contact Anne Morter, 422-7040.

suitable for the home or to give as a gift. Cost is $7.50 tuition with $5 lab fee payable to the instructor. The class is scheduled for February 16 at the School

Mustangs no match for W-M

Eric Schonbachler (11) attempts to block shot against a TigerScot player

The Heppner Mustangs were no match for league-leading Weston-McEwen Friday night, Feb. 10, as the TigerScots jumped to an early lead and never looked back, except once, in their 76-60 win over the Mustangs.

The TigerScots built a comfortable lead of 60-38 going into the fourth quarter. The TigerScot coach began heavy substitution and the Mustangs pulled to within 11 points. That put a scare into the 10-0 CBC leaders, who brought back in the starters to seal the victory over the 0-9 Mustangs.

Heppner's shooting percentage improved to 51 percent for the game, but it wasn't enough to overcome the taller, quicker

TigerScots. Trent Hughes led the Mustangs' scoring attack with 16 points, followed by Chris Dickenson and Chris Sykes with nine apiece. Eric Schonbachler had eight, Dan Burnside and Justin Matteson seven, Brent Wright three and Ben Ewing with one point.

Union Pacific property to be sold

On February 1, Union Pacific Railroad Company and Union Pacific Land Resources Corporation authorized Railroad Realty Services of St. Louis, Missouri to begin liquidating the property within the former Condon and Heppner Branch Lines in Gilliam and Morrow Counties.

The Heppner Branch Line, 45 miles in length, was assembled and constructed by the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company in the 1880's and was opened for rail service on December 15, 1888.

The 45 mile Condon branch rail corridor was originally assembled and constructed by the Columbia River & Central Oregon Railroad Company at the turn of the century and was opened for service on July 1, 1905.

Combined, the two rail lines and appurtenant railroad properties comprise approximately 1,164 acres, of which, approximately 942 acres were acquired from non-governmental land owners and are thus considered saleable.

Although the property is being offered for sale to the general public, Railroad Realty Services indicates that efforts are being made to initially contact those persons owning property parcels abutting the former rail line.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

One hundred forty-three people were present for the senior meal, including 24 volunteers, Feb. 8. One meal was home delivered. Members of the Seventh-Day Adventist and Nazarene Church served. Darrell Vinson won the free meal ticket. Dianne Swanson and Cathy Cooke of RSVP were guests at the dinner. Arrangements were made to have a tea honoring RSVP volunteers of the county. The tea will be held Tuesday, February 21 from 3-5 p.m. at the St. Patrick Senior Center.

The senior center board met following the meal. Dar Merrill, executive director of the Morrow County Commission on Children and Families talked to the board during the meeting. Rose Marie Buschke resigned from the board and is now nutrition site chairman manager. Mary Goheen has moved from the nutrition site committee to the senior board and has been appointed secretary for the board.

The menu for the birthday dinner Feb. 22 will be barbecued chicken, potato rounds, tossed salad, dilly bread and cherry crisp with topping. Members of the Methodist Church will serve.

Four ladies played pinocle Friday afternoon. Ten seniors watched the movie "Father of the Bride" Sunday evening.

Marlene Barnett is taking Ed Dick's place as contact person for senior center rentals, dining room, kitchen and rec room. Phone 676-5173 to confirm reservations.

Dates to remember: Tues. and Thurs. exercise 10 a.m.; Wednesday senior meal noon, quilting 1 p.m.; Friday cards 2 p.m.; Sunday movie 7 p.m.

Sara Adkins will celebrate her 100th birthday reception Saturday Feb. 18 from 1-4 p.m. in the center dining room.

Now is the time to sign up to help with the St. Patrick's celebration. Please help.
