

'Information Superhighway' to form

The 12 people who attended a meeting January 10 expressed a strong wish to see inexpensive local access for Morrow County to what has come to be called the "Information Superhighway". Since then Wendell Buck, director of the Oregon Trail Library District, attended a state-wide meeting to explore the possibilities. He also talked with a representative of a group in the Tri-Cities called the Tri-Cities Free Net, which is interested in applying for grants to provide Internet access for eastern Washington, northeastern Oregon and part of Idaho.

Bruce McComb, executive director of the Tri-Cities Free net, will be in Heppner Tuesday, March 7 to make a presentation of his organizations plan. Buck will also present a brief report of the meeting he attended. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. and will be held at the library in Heppner. The meeting is open to the public and anyone who is interested is encouraged to attend.

Heppner gains second league win beat Rockets

Ben Ewing (3) and Chris Sykes (44) try to stop a Rocket player from scoring.

Trent Hughes (14) swats ball being passed to a Pilot Rock player.

Heppner gained its second conference win Friday night, Feb. 17, when they downed Pilot Rock, 57-46, on the Mustangs' home court.

The game was fairly even until the fourth quarter when Heppner went on a 21-15 scoring spree to put the contest out of reach for the Rockets.

Trent Hughes of the Mustangs led all scorers with 21 points, followed by Brent Wright who nailed 16.

Byron Ellis and Chris Humphreys had 10 points each to lead the Rockets.

Others to score for the Mustangs were: Eric Schonbachler with eight, Justin Matteson, six, Chris Dickenson, four, and Dan Burnside with two points.

Coordinating Council meeting set

The Heppner Coordinating Council will meet next on Tuesday, February 28, at 7:30 a.m. in the GEODC office.

Morrow County Schools Superintendent Chuck Starr will be present to brief the council on school district issues.

Also the council will review progress on the community "gap study".

The public is welcome to attend all meetings of the Heppner Coordinating council.

Mustangs' last game not memorable

Jim Schlaich (21) scores two points against Sherman, while Shaun Hisler (23) and Ethan Burnside (31) watch.

Heppner's final game of the 1994-95 season was not a memorable one, as the Sherman County Huskies dusted the Mustangs 69-34 on the Huskies' home court Saturday, Feb. 18.

Sherman's superior height proved to be the difference, as the Huskies dominated the inside game, swatting shots, grabbing rebounds and placing short jumpers over the Heppner players.

Trent Hughes, the Mustangs' leading scorer all season, managed only seven points in the contest, while Sherman placed three players in double figures.

Other scoring for the Mustangs were: Chris Dickenson, six, Eric Schonbachler, Jim Schlaich and Ethan Burnside with four points; Brent Wright with three, Chris Sykes and Shawn Hisler, two, and Justin Matteson and Ben Ewing with one point each.
