Lutherans offer St. Pat's goodies

Are you ready for the big St. Patrick's Day parade in Heppner Saturday, March 18? One sure good way to get ready is to hop on down to Green's Feed and Seed around 11 a.m. for the 'O' Irish' Valby Lutheran church potato feed. The menu will include baked potatoes, hot dogs, pop, coffee and some other Irish goodies. If you are one of those parade participants that doesn't like to

Chamber Chatter
 By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

Tis sure the hills of Heppner will be green for our St. Patrick's weekend. Our leprechauns predict 68 degrees, beautiful and sunny for the weekend but remember, green and white umbrellas are available at the Shoe Box as well as ducky's. Calls are coming in from far and wide with the new RV Park at the lake filling up fast. The dedication will kick off the weekend. On everybody's lips we hear, "Wild horses couldn't drag me away from Heppner's Wee Bit O'Ireland celebration." Ewe-do-Bingo, (People for the Pool) has a bit of a problem; they are searching for a line judge. This is essential for the two rounds of sheep activity to take place Saturday afternoon on Willow Street. Of course, the judge will need to be able to count, too.

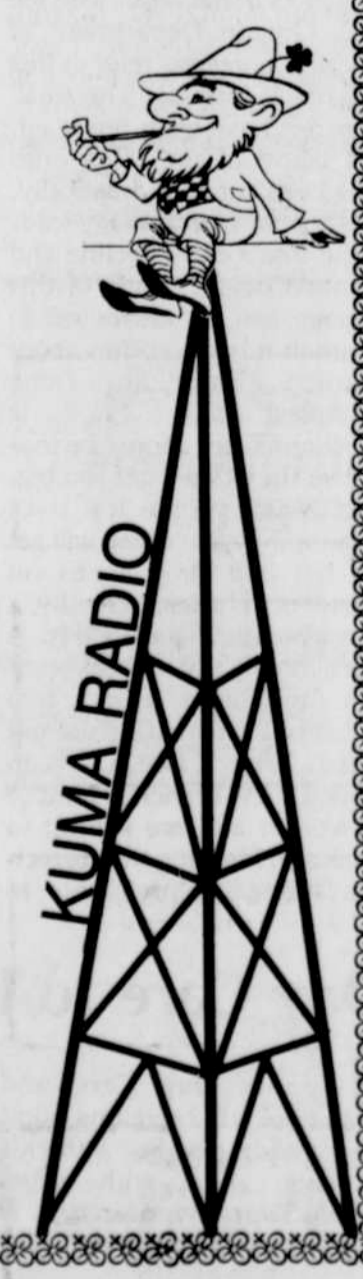

Food, tours, contests and Irish history and humor with Dallas McKennon; dog trials, roving musicians, all Saturday. Sunday have a good breakfast with the firemen or golfers, go to church, be ready to outbid your friends and neighbors at the auction, topped off with the lamb barbecue. The lucky will hold the winning buttons. Find out all you need to know and more at the information booth by the post office. Don't forget to get your collector stamp cancellation, greet the Brosnan family at the coffee hour and taste the lamb at the cook-off. A great weekend it will be. "May the leprechauns be near you to spread luck along your way. Any may all the Irish Angels smile on you St. Patrick's Day."

Memorial services will be held Saturday, March 18, at 3 p.m. in the Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner. Bedford Funeral Chapel, 8300 Lewis Avenue, Temperance, MI, is in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank one and all for their concern, the plants and flowers, cards, calls, visits and other acts of caring, (snow shoveling, for one) during my hospitalization and present recuperation at home.

The family of Ninon Rill wishes to extend their gratitude to all who have helped care for Ninon for the past few years: the home health team, the hospital staff and Dr. Jeanne Berretta. The loving care that you gave our mother and grandmother will always be remembered. Thank you to all who sent flowers, gifts of food to our families; to those who have contributed to the Pioneer Memorial Fund for redecoration of patient rooms, and to all of you who offered your sympathy and support to us.

Our special thanks to Reverend Grace Drake for the hours spent with our family, our mother and for the special funeral service she performed in Ninon's honor. We also appreciate the fine dinner the members of the First Christian Church provided us.

Not to be forgotten is the very special friendship extended by the Allstott family to the Rill family and for all of their caring and concern. Thank you. The children and grandchildren of Ninon Rill
