

Haynes to celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. (Pete) Haynes, former Lone-rock residents, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary April 21. An open house reception for the couple will be held Saturday, April 22 at the Unity Community Hall in Unity from 1 to 3 p.m. A program will follow with a tribute to the couple, old time music and lots of fun. The event will be hosted by their children and grandchildren. Food and beverages will be provided. The couple requests no gifts. Those planning on attending should contact Marilyn Shollenberger 503 446-3365.

Arndt is speaker at IUCC Tues.

Elvira de Arndt will be the guest speaker at a potluck dinner at Lone United Church of Christ on Tuesday, April 11 at 6:30 p.m.

Ms. de Arndt serves with the United Evangelical Church of Ecuador in pastoral ministry and with the community service and development projects. Her work is supported jointly by the Ecuadoran and Argentinian churches, the Disciples of Christ and the United Church of Christ.

Her visit to Oregon is made possible by First Congregational Church of Corvallis.

"All interested persons are invited to join us for an evening of fellowship and learning about our sisters and brothers to the south," said Rev. Lea Mathieu.

All Saints to hold extra services

This coming week before Easter is Holy Week and very busy at All Saints' Episcopal church. The church will celebrate with extra worship services.

All Saints will host the community Singspiration on Sunday, April 9 beginning at 7 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend. People should bring music, instruments or their favorite songs of praise and inspiration. A free will offering will be collected for the outreach of the South Morrow Ministerial Association.

Thursday, April 13 All Saints will celebrate the institution of the Lord's Supper or communion. This "Maundy Thursday" service will begin at 7 p.m.

On Good Friday, April 14, a special service will be held at noon. Christians celebrate Jesus' death on the cross as the price paid for our sins.

A special time for Easter worship on Sunday, April 16 will be 11:30 a.m. instead of the normal hour. Father Miller will be present to celebrate a festive Holy Eucharist and preach the Eastern sermon.

The entire community is welcome to attend any worship service at All Saints' church.

Churches join for soup supper

The Lutherans and Episcopalians will meet at Heppner United Methodist church at 6 p.m. this Thursday, Apr. 6 for a soup supper followed by a communion service and question and answer period on faith and policy concerns at 6:45 p.m.

This will conclude a series of informative exchanges between Roman Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists and the Lutherans about worship services and beliefs.

4-H horse club to start

Heppner has been without an organized 4-H horse club for about a year but a new one will start up soon thanks to Jennifer Rankin and her interest to help get a club going.

Merlyn Robinson who has been a supporter of 4-H and the horse program for many years, will help with the club. Mary Erwin will be a co-leader. Erwin has just moved to the Heppner area. Rankin and Mandi Gutierrez will serve as junior leaders.

This club will be a new club and address the interest of the club members. If members want to do more than horse show at fair, their other interests will be addressed, said Bill Broderick, Morrow County extension agent.

Anyone who would like to sign up for this club should call the Extension office 676-9642 as soon as possible to get on the list. An organizational meeting will be scheduled soon. "This should be a great new opportunity for young horse people," said Broderick.

Eric Rollis qualifies for state geography bee

Eric Rollis

Eric Rollis, a seventh-grader at Heppner Middle School, was recently notified that he qualified for the Oregon State Geography Bee on the basis of a lengthy written test.

The state contest will be held at the Aldersgate Conference Center in Turner on Friday, April 7. One hundred students from grades four to eight will compete for the state title and the chance for a trip to the national finals in Washington, D.C. at the end of May.

Rollis will have a chance to win cash and book awards. The state champion's expenses to Washington, D.C. are paid by the Geography Bee sponsors, National Geographic World and the Chrysler Corporation.

Rollis is the son of Russell and Ellen Rollis of Heppner. His social studies teacher is Al Beck.

Nordic club meets

The Arbuckle Nordic club met on March 28 for a wrap up of this year's activities and plan for next year.

The group decided to hold an instructor's on-the-snow clinic to go over instructional progression, teaching tips and class/party leadership and control. They also decided to hold an orientation class and instructors' planning meeting in mid-January. On-the-snow classes will be held on the four Saturdays on February.

The group decided against proceeding with formal dues paying affiliation with the Oregon Nordic Club and felt they were still several years away from moving into an agreement with the Forest Service for use of Ditch Creek Guard Station.

The club decided to maintain the annual dues at $5 a unit for both renewal and new memberships.

The 1994-95 officers agreed to serve another year. Officers are as follows: John Edmondson, chairman; Dave Fowler, vice-chairman; and Bill and Sherry Ewing, secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 4. The agenda for that meeting will include viewing Mark Tullis' slides from this year's outing and planning for day trips for November, December and January before classes start; and a report from Elwood Stout on his reconnaissance of cross-country skiing in the John Day area. The group also discussed possible overnight excursions next year to Cloud Cap Inn on Mt. Hood, Tullis' cabin at Penland Lake and Hughes' cabin at the head of Johnson Creek.
