

Diamond men win 2 lose 2

The Heppner Mustangs had a busy week losing to Pilot Rock in a double header Saturday, April 15 at Pilot Rock 3-4 and 4-5 then beating Umatilla at home Tuesday, April 18 12-2 and getting even with Mac-Hi Thursday, April 20 beating the Pioneers 7-3.

Against Pilot Rock the Mustangs had a couple of errors in the first few innings that let a Rocket player get on base and score. Pilot Rock, however hit well and Chris Humphreys scored a home run scoring one in the bottom of the third tying the score at three.

Eric Schonbachler got a double to get on base and Chris Dickenson answered with a home run of his own, scoring Schonbachler and Brian Koffler.

Defensively Pilot Rock held their own throughout the game but Mustang pitcher Chad Skroch came back in the fifth and Humphreys got another home run, which proved to be the winning run. Donnie Pointer made it to third on a single hit in the seventh, but he was left hanging as the next three batters got thrown out. In addition to his double, Schonbachler and Trent Hughes both had a base hit for Heppner.

In the nightcap Heppner once again let Pilot Rock get the first run in the first inning but answered back in the second with two of their own. Josh Coiner scored Chad Skroch on a single hit while Trent Hughes scored off a wild pitch.

The Rockets came back in the third getting on base with a double, single and hit pitch, scoring all three.

Heppner tied it up to four in the sixth when Skroch hit a home run scoring Dickenson. However, once again, this time Dickenson with Dickenson on the mound, Pilot Rock's Brandon Dames got lucky and hit a home run to take the win. The Mustangs beat Umatilla in six when a balk was called, with the bases loaded, giving the Mustangs a 10 run lead to end the game.

Heppner's defense held Umatilla in the first four innings allowing two runs in the fourth. Umatilla had opportunities to score but the Mustang defense was hot.

Heppner scored two in the second when Hughes and Ryan Nevala, who both walked, came in on stolen bases and squeeze plays. The Vikings kept the Mustangs bats quiet until the fourth and fifth inning when Heppner scored five more runs. In the fourth inning Schonbachler scored Brian Koffler on a sacrifice. Josh Coiner and Jon Hanna each had an RBI in the fifth inning and Koffler had two.

In the sixth inning Shawn Tracy, pitcher for the Vikings was struggling and replaced with two outs. Dickenson, Skroch, Hughes and Nevala all singled in the inning. Hughes and Rod Zumwalt both had an RBI and Dickenson had two RBIs in the inning.

The Mac-Hi Pioneers saw a different Mustang team when they came to Heppner April 20. When Heppner lost to Milton-Freewater in an earlier away game, it was without most of Heppner's starting infield so the Pioneers didn't have a clue. Heppner got revenge (7-3) and scored three runs in the second and four in the third which was all they needed. Skroch, Nevala and Coiner, who all walked on base scored in the second. Jon Hanna had an RBI and Koffler had the other two.

In the third inning Dickenson, Hughes, Nevala and Coiner all came across the plate on stolen bases and wild pitches. Mac-Hi's runs came in the first and sixth.

Forest service plans tree give-away

The Heppner Ranger District will observe Arbor Day with a tree give-away on Friday, April 28, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the District Office compound (across from the main office), 117 South Main.

The following species will be available: Douglas-fir, ponderosa pine, and western larch. There will be a limit of five trees per household.

Arbor Day (arbor-from the Latin word meaning tree or beam), celebrated by most states in April or early May, is observed by the planting of trees. Planting a tree is a good way to green up your yard, while providing nesting habitat and much needed shade in the summer, said a Forest Service spokesperson.

For more information, contact Monica Jones, 676-9187 or 676-2156.
