Obituaries

Renne Lee Harris

Renne Lee Harris of Portland, formerly of Heppner, died May 20, 1995, in Portland of AIDS-related complications.

Memorial services were held Wednesday, May 24, at Saints Peter and Paul Episcopal Church, Portland.

Born April 26, 1941 in Heppner to Eileen and Renn Harris, he grew up in Heppner and graduated from Heppner High School in 1959. He later graduated from Willamette University, DePauw University and Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

He was employed as a chemist for Rhone-Poulenc in the late 1960s and was vicar of Ascension Chapel in Portland from 1972-78 and rector of Saints Peter and Paul from 1978-83. Most recently he worked as department head of environmental services for the Portland Public Schools.

Survivors include sons, Joseph of Klamath Falls and Christopher of Portland, daughter, Carolyn of Portland, sister, Sheryl Kelly of Portland, mother and stepfather Eileen and Mike Saling of Heppner, half-sisters, Patti Allstott and Michele Hams of Heppner, and two grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Renn.

Ida Coleman

The funeral for Ida Coleman was Monday, June 22, at Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner. Concluding service and burial followed at High View Cemetery in Ione.

Mrs. Coleman, 91, of Heppner, died Thursday, May 18, 1995, at Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home in Heppner.

She was born April 15, 1904, at Abercrombie, ND, to Andrew and Carrie Sandvig Hage. She grew up at Fergus Falls, MN, and attended school there.

In 1922, she married Melvin Gaarsland. Mr. Gaarsland died in 1930.

In 1933, she married Albion Coleman. They lived in Minnesota before coming to Oregon in 1937. They lived in the Salem area where she worked at the woolen mills. They moved to the Ione area in 1939 where they farmed until Mr. Coleman's death in 1942.

Mrs. Coleman set up the kitchen and was the first cook at Pioneer Memorial Hospital when it opened in 1950. She also cooked at the Delbert Emert ranch for several years, and later cooked at the Ione schools until her retirement in 1980.

She was a member of Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner, the Rebekah Lodge, and the Willows Grange in Ione.

Survivors include daughters, Jean Crawford of Portland, Gwen Healy and Ann Scharz of Heppner, and Sue Matthes of Seattle; brother Ed Hage of Wahpeton, ND; 18 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren. A son and a daughter died earlier.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Histiocytosis Association of America, 609 New York Road, Glassboro, NJ 08028.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

Ethyl V. Furlong

Word has been received of the death of Ethyl V. Furlong, 78, of Port Orchard, at the Harrison Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Furlong was born December 4, 1916 at Monument, to Jack and Susie Hughes. She graduated from high school in Heppner.

She married Jim Furlong on January 20, 1940, in Bremerton, WA. She worked as a homemaker.

Survivors include two daughters, Suzan Carter of Pullman, WA, and Michaela Hughes of Spokane, WA; three grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

No services were held. Cremation arrangements were under the direction of Rill Chapel, Pendleton-Gilchrist Funeral Home.

Spray Rodeo May 27 & 28

Joie Kiser of Prineville will reign as queen of the 48th annual Spray Rodeo, May 27-28. Kiser is a 17 year old student at Crook County High School.

Rodeo festivities will begin Friday evening, May 26, with the first dance of the weekend to be held in the high school gym. Music will be provided by Old Spice, from Redmond.

Following the Friday night dance, a buckaroo breakfast, sponsored by the Wheeler County Fair Court, will be held in the school cafeteria, from midnight until noon.

Saturday morning, May 27, the 30th annual Eastern Oregon Half-Marathon will begin at 8 a.m., at Service Creek. The race will end in Spray. T-shirts are available to those who pay a higher entry fee. Trophies will be awarded in each category. Marathon directors are Guy and Sue Grater. For more information, call 468-2821.

The parade will begin at 11:30 at the Spray General Store and will end at the rodeo grounds. The Grand Marshal is Grace Younce of Spray. Ribbons will be awarded in several categories. Parade director is Milne Wilson, 763-2719.
