

Summer reading program begins at Library

'Aliens' were seen parading through town June 9, as part of the summer reading program. The reading program got underway last Friday and will be held at the Library in Heppner every Friday through July 14 beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Students get ready for rodeo finals

Many area high school rodeo students are practicing daily to prepare for the Oregon State High School Rodeo Association (OHSRA) finals to be held in Prineville, June 14-18.

The top 20 contestants in the state in each event will compete in two goes for the opportunity to qualify for the short go on Sunday. Only the top 10 in the state in each event will compete on Sunday. The top four contestants after the short go will qualify for the National High School Rodeo finals to be held in Gillette, WY., in July. Over 350 Oregon Students compete. Heppner and Condon High Schools have qualified all of their student high school rodeo members for the state finals. The girls' team of Tiffanie Munkers and Katie McCoin are also in the number two position in team standings.

Following are the OHSRA point standings going into state finals:

All-around girl: Tiffanie Munkers, second, 156½; and Lexi Matteson, fourth, 129, both Heppner High School; Katie McCoin, fifth, 121, Condon High School.

Rookie girl: Lexi Matteson, second, 187; Annie Hisler, seventh, 58, HHS.

All-around boy: Justin Matteson, fourth, 113, HHS.

Barrel Racing: Lexi Matteson, third, 56; Munkers, fifth, 42;

McCoin, seventh, 39; Hisler, ninth, 37.

Goat tying: Munkers, fifth, 55; McCoin, eighth, 37; Lexi Matteson, ninth, 27.

Pole bending: Lexi Matteson, eighth, 38; McCoin, ninth, 37; Hisler, 16th, 20; Munkers, 18th, 15.

Breakaway roping: Lexi Matteson, second, 48; Munkers, 13th, 19; McCoin, 18th, 16.

FFA team takes second at show

The Heppner Future Farmers of America (FFA) Judging Team, consisting of Tina and Toni Kemp, Jossie Evans, Frank Martin and Willie DeBoer, placed second at the Eastern Oregon Livestock Show, at Union, June 7-9.

Heppner was not far behind the first place team, Enterprise, as they were edged out of the top spot by just one point. Enterprise finished with 912 points and Heppner with 911 points.

Other top five finishers were Union, third; Milton-Free-water, fourth; and Enterprise second team, fifth. A total of 18 advanced teams, consisting of five members each, competed.

Each member had to correctly place a set of four animals in six classes. The classes were comprised of two classes of beef, two sheep and two swine and an oral set of reasons on one class. The placings were then scored against the official placing to determine winners.

Evans and Toni Kemp were eighth and ninth high scoring individuals from the advanced participants. Evans scored 307 and Kemp 306, from a possible 350 points.

"The team looks forward to competing at other livestock shows this summer and will practice and fine tune their skills for the final judging contest held at the Oregon State Fair held in late August," said a team spokesperson.

Sheridan Tarnasky earns scholarship

Sheridan Tarnasky, RN, Heppner, has been awarded a career enhancement award of $1,500, the North East Oregon Area Health Education Center (NEOAHEC) has announced.

The award is to be used for advanced training in her medical field of choice. Tarnasky will upgrade to physician assistant. She is currently the nursing supervisor at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Community applicants who met the requirements were sent to the NEOAHEC screening committee. Requirements include living in the NEOAHEC 10 county area, being willing to commit to returning to their community upon completion of training, identifying a community need for the training, submitting to a plan of action for completing the career enhancement project with timeline and projected budget, and the support of their employer.

Health care professionals in the local 10 county area: Morrow, Baker, Gilliam, Grant, northern Malheur, Sherman, Umatilla, Wallowa and Wheeler, applied for the scholarships awarded by NEOAHEC. A total of eight winners received scholarships of $500 or more.

Bank of EO to offer scholarship

Bank of Eastern Oregon scholarship applications can still be submitted for three more weeks, reminds bank president George Koffler. The deadline for the new $600 award is July 5. The contest is open to Heppner and lone high school graduates who will be second, third or fourth year college students majoring in either agriculture or business.

The funds for this scholarship were raised at the Bank of Eastern Oregon Customer Appreciation Golf Tournament for the Heppner and lone branches last September.

"The scholarship fund became a joint effort between the bank and our customers," Koffler said. "The bank hosted the tournament and luncheon as a way to thank our customers for their patronage and have some fun. They, in turn, made donations to the scholarship fund."

The bank gives scholarships to graduating seniors in Morrow and Gilliam counties who plan to major in agriculture or business, and felt a scholarship for returning students was also needed, explained Koffler.

Applications may be picked up at the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Heppner and lone.

Parents support group formed

The Prevention/Early Intervention committee members for Morrow County have been working on establishing a parent's support group for the north and south ends of the county.

This supportive group will work towards enhancing parents' resources in dealing with their children. The committee is in need of volunteer group facilitators for the parent and child groups in the Boardman/Irrigon and Lexington/lone/Heppner areas.

Volunteer positions will involve three hours of work a week. The program prefers individuals who have some facilitating background, working knowledge of local resources, and who are dedicated to help empower parents and children. Training will be provided by Parents Anonymous locally.
