St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 93 people present for the senior meal, June 7. Six meals were home delivered. Members of the Ione Church of Christ served. Anna Ball won the free meal ticket. Howard Gilliam presented special birthday desserts to Sue Vinson, Dot Halvorsen, and Tommy Steagall. Jim Bruns gave hearing aid assistance to several seniors and blood pressures were taken by the home health nurse before lunch.

The menu for Wednesday, June 21 will be meatloaf, whipped potatoes, green beans, fruit and cookies. Members of the Seventh Day Adventist and Nazarene churches will serve.

There was one table of cards in play Friday afternoon. There are also other games available here if others would like to come in to play those instead of cards. There is also always a jigsaw puzzle to work on. Ten seniors watched the movie, "White Wolf, a Call From the Wild", Sunday evening.

The Red Cross will hold a blood drawing at the Senior Center room, Thursday, June 22, from noon to 6 p.m.

The senior bus will travel to the Condon meal site at the United Church of Christ on Thursday, June 22, at 10 a.m.; and Sunday July 2 to the Monument reunion potluck dinner at 8 a.m. Those traveling to the potluck should bring food and a lawn chair.

On Friday, July 14, the bus will travel to the Milton-Freewater meal site at 9 a.m. Sunday, July 23, there is a potluck at Gonty's Cabin. Those attending the potluck should bring lawn chairs.

Seniors who would like to go to the fireworks at Ione, July 4, should call Eleanor Gonty, 676-9264, the Senior Center, 676-9030, or drop by the Senior Center office.

The Senior Center needs a few substitute office volunteers. We have some volunteers who are ill, or are on vacation. Your help would be appreciated.

Father Condon to be honored

Father Gerry Condon will be honored at a potluck celebration commemorating the 40th anniversary of his priesthood. The reception will be held Saturday, June 17, at 6 p.m., following Mass, at the St.

Patrick's Catholic Church, Heppner. The event is open to the public and everyone is invited to attend. Beverages will be provided.

Fred J. Reed
Fred J. Reed, 76, of Heppner, died Monday, June 12, 1995, at his home.

Memorial service will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Elks Lodge in Condon. Graveside service will be 4 p.m. Thursday at Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mr. Reed was born Dec. 9, 1918, at Fox Valley, to George and Amanda Medlin Reed. He grew up at Fox Valley and attended school there. He later moved to Gilliam County where he worked in the Condon and Mikkalo areas for Potter and Sons.

On Sept. 5, 1940, he married Donaldda Maley, at Payette, Idaho.

He served with the U.S. Army from 1943-1945, during World War II.

He returned to Gilliam County after his discharge and in 1948 formed a partnership in farming with Bob Maley which lasted 20 years. He and his wife moved to Heppner in 1991.

He was a charter member of Condon BPOE 1869; a member of the Oregon Wheat Growers League; a member of the North American Hunting Club, and the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation.

Survivors include his wife, Donaldda, at the home; daughters Dorothy Shaffer of Vancouver, Wash., Carol Klein of Glendale, Nev., and KayRene Qualls of Heppner; son, Robert of Condon; sisters, Ethel Patterson of John Day, Ardith Moore of Pendleton, and June Fox of Portland; 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. A sister, Edith Marquardt, preceded him in death.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Home Health Care, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, Ore. 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Mary Della Bones

Mary Della Ritchie Ross-Bones, 84, longtime resident of the Heppner-Ione area, died May 29, 1995, at her home in Pomona, Ca., following a long illness with cancer.

At Mrs. Bones' request, there was no funeral or memorial services. She was cremated May 30. Her remains, along with those of her husband, James Bones, will rest on the mantel at the home of her son, Lee Bones of Tacoma, WA.,

Mrs. Bones was born in Ione on June 28, 1910, to Charlie and Louise Gardner Ritchie. When she was three years old, the family moved to Lakeview where her mother taught school. After three or four years, the family returned to Heppner, where she and her sister, Faye, attended Heppner Elementary and High School. After graduating from high school in 1928, she went to work as a waitress at the Reith Hotel in Reith, where she met Fred A. Ross, a Union Pacific engineer. They were married in Portland on November 28, 1928. He passed away in 1954. She met her second husband, James H. Bones, in The Dalles. They were married in Las Vegas, Nevada, on September 14, 1969. He also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Bones is survived by seven sons, Charles "Chuck" Ross, LaPine, George Ross, Dubois, ID, Francis "Frank" Ross, Pendleton, John "Jack" Ross, Bend, Donald Roy Ross, Cucamonga, CA; and twins, Dee Bones, Pomona, CA, and Lee Bones, Tacoma, WA; daughter, Faye Mabbott, Dubois, ID; step-daughter, Sherrie Bones Getchman; 30 grandchildren, three step-grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and five step great-grandchildren. Along with her husbands she was preceded in death by her parents, her sister, Faye and a son, Louis Dean Ross.

Memorials may be made to any branch of hospice care.
