Oregon's WWII program at museum

Larry Landis, assistant university archivist at Oregon State University and curator of "Fighters on the Farm Front: Oregon's Emergency Farm Labor Service, 1943-1947", currently on exhibit at the Morrow County Museum in conjunction with the Smithsonian exhibition, "Produce for Victory: Posters on the American Home Front 1941-45" will speak on the Emergency Farm Labor Service, Thursday June 29, at 7 p.m. at the Morrow County Museum. His presentation will focus on Oregon's Farm Labor program, which enlisted more than 900,000 women, school children, migrant workers, and German prisoners of war, in efforts to rescue the state's wartime agricultural harvests.

Landis' appearance is the sixth and final presentation in a series of programs being held in conjunction with the two exhibits on display at the Morrow County Museum through July 12. The museum is open 1-5 p.m. Saturday through Wednesday. Admission to the museum and the series of speakers is free.

"Fighters on the Farm Front" is presented in part by a grant from The Oregon Council for the Humanities, an affiliate of the National Endowment for Humanities.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

A couple of news flashes of interest to the community at large:

This Saturday, June 24, the streets of Heppner will be alive with 900-1000 motorcycles. The event, called Lawman 1000, benefits the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. Six law enforcement officers serve on their board of directors. Groups from both Seattle and Wenatchee will be arriving between the hours of noon and 3 p.m. en route from Condon to the Tri-Cities. They have gathered pledges for their two-day trip and are required to stop in Heppner to obtain a receipt from the business of their choice. So, be ready with a friendly smile to write a receipt as they make a purchase at your place of business. Citizens are encouraged to welcome them and invite them back when they can spend more time.

On Tuesday, June 27, Representative Lynn Lundquist will be the Chamber program, offering a legislative wrap-up, and will include time for questions. Previously scheduled for this Wednesday, he had to cancel for an emergency session in Salem, but his "meeting planner" wife, Barb, has assured us that he will make it the 27th, and that, tentatively, Senator Greg Walden will be with him. Non-Chamber members are welcome to attend. Please call 676-5536 to reserve a spot for lunch; leave a message on the machine. Representative Lundquist continues to work hard for our rural communities.

Thought for the week: "If Noah had been truly wise, he would have swatted the two flies".

June 19: Morrow County deputy responded to a residence on Hwy 74 to assist with a civil dispute;

Morrow County deputy assisted with a welfare check on an Irrigon resident;

Morrow County deputy responded to the Clark's Canyon area in Heppner for a report of someone shooting.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all those who made the celebration of the 40th anniversary of my ordination such an enjoyable event-the organizing committee of St. Patrick's and St. William's churches, the Community Choir, the singers, the speech-makers, and all who attended. I also want to thank all those who offered prayers, good wishes, and gifts. I deeply appreciate their affection and generosity.

Fr. Gerry Condon

The family of Fred Reed would like to thank everyone for the cards, prayers, visits, food, flowers, and donations to Pioneer Memorial Home Health during Fred Reed's illness and death. To live in a community that is so supporting during hard times is truly a blessing.

Especially a prayer and a thank you to all the people who helped us keep Fred at home. Home Health employees are truly angels at work. Robani Disque, Molly Rhea and Donna Schonbachler went beyond their duties to help the family through the difficult times, and Florene Robinson for being on call for the Volunteer Hospice Program.

A special thank you to Drs. Jeanne and Ed Berretta, the clinic and hospital staff and Murray Drugs Store for their medical knowledge to help keep Fred comfortable as possible.

If we missed anybody, please accept this as our thank you.

God Bless you all,
