Barb Watkins and Jeri Wight, Heppner Postal employees, have received special achievement awards for outstanding service from the Portland district, which includes all of Oregon and portions of southwest Washington.

McGuire said he nominated Watkins and Wight for their "outstanding service above and beyond, friendly service, and their attitude." "I've been in Post Offices where clerks just do what they have to," said McGuire. "Barb and Jeri go beyond and do whatever they can for the customer."

Watkins and Wight were each awarded $250. This is Wight's second award. She has worked for the Post Office for 19 years. Watkins was hired in Nov. of 1992.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all the sponsors of my conservation day's barbecue dinner, for their donations of time and money, for the food and supplies and the Grain Growers for furnishing the pop.

Special thanks to Eric and Marnie Anderson and crew for cooking the meat-good job. Special thanks to Judy and Keith Rea, Judy for organizing everything so well and helping me, Keith for his help and the use of his truck.

Thanks to Janet Greenup for hauling the tables and chairs, and all the others who helped make it such a nice event. Thanks to all the people that brought salads and desserts and of course to all the people that came to share our day.

Thank you all,
Stan Kemp and family

Seventh-Day

Adventists

to hold VBS

Friends Forever, a "unique, fun-packed" vacation Bible school, will begin July 10 from 2-5 p.m. at the Heppner Seventh-Day Adventist Church. The Bible school, which teaches children ages 4-12 "how to make friends and survive in their busy world", runs through July 14.

The children will learn home survival skills such as making a bed, doing the dishes and simple first aid and safety. Trained adults will help them explore friendship and develop new social skills. Songs, skits and activities will help instill values based on Bible principals, said a spokesperson for the event.

All needed supplies are furnished without cost, and all children who participate will receive certificates. For more information or to pre-register by call 676-5851.

I would like to give a big thank you to Sam Bellamy for coaching the Pirates this year. Sam found the balance of being a coach to all instead of just a dad to one. Sam seemed to want the Pirates to play and win/lose as a team.

We were not sure how the kids would play this year after losing their coach George to cancer. It was a loss I know hit them all hard. Chip made the statement that he wanted to make George proud of himself and the team. I think they did.

Thank you again, Sam, for being there for all the kids through all the season.

Sincerely,
Pam Piper
