Oral Ibuprofen Liquid Near Approval

According to a recent issue of Pharmacist's Letter, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration is getting close to approving ibuprofen oral suspension for over-the-counter (OTC) use. According to the report, the new product (which may be called Children's Motrin) will be the first new OTC pain medicine for children since Children's Tylenol was approved over 30 years ago.

It is expected that Children's Motrin will be available in doses that are lower than those recommended for the prescription version of the drug. The product will be limited for the relief of pain and fever for up to three days use. This provision is to prevent drug use for long periods of time when other more serious problems may be present. According to the report in Pharmacist's Letter, ibuprofen liquid should not be used if the child has been vomiting or if diarrhea is present.

The "Boston Fever Study" indicates that occasional use of ibuprofen in children is about as safe as using acetaminophen. There is no significant risk of gastrointestinal bleeding, kidney failure, or Reye's Syndrome. A possible advantage over acetaminophen is that ibuprofen is longer acting (requires less frequent dosing). Also, ibuprofen may work better in children who have high fevers (over 102.5 F).

Burley Funeral Chapel in Oak Harbor was in charge of arrangements.

Cards may be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, 2800 N. Torpedo Rd., Oak Harbor, WA 98277.

Elizabeth Elder Ward

Elizabeth Elder Ward, 83, of Seattle, WA., died April 30, 1995, at the Ballard Hospital. She had been ill for several years with a degenerative heart condition.

Memorial services were held May 3, 1995 at St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Ballard.

Mrs. Ward was born to Frank and Jennie Elder, descendants of early pioneers of the United States and finally, Oregon, where they were engaged in raising sheep.

Elizabeth Elder came to Tacoma after graduating from high school in Umapine in 1929. She started to become a teacher by attending a community college in La Grande. She was not able to continue her education so she went to Tacoma to find employment, which was not easy because of the Great Depression. She was working in an auto freight office where she met and eventually married Eugene Ward. She lived for many years in Bremerton, where her son, Douglas Ward was raised.

Mrs. Ward worked for the Navy Department in Seattle where she retired and continued to live. She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Ballard. Her family and many friends will always remember her for being there when needed and doing everything she could to help.

She is survived by her son Douglas and wife Eva; grandchildren, Michael, Duane, Janice, Doug, J.D. and Kathy; five great-children; a sister, Mayree Elder of Bremerton; a brother Maurice Elder of Heppner; two nieces, Shirley Blake and Doratha Barrett; and two nephews, William Elder and John Elder, all living in Oregon.

East-West Shrine game set for Aug. 12

Bill Schlaich, Heppner High School graduating senior, along with 63 other senior football players representing the A, AA and AAA schools will meet August 4, at the Valu-Inn in Oregon City, for the 43rd Annual East-West Shrine Football game.

The players, accompanied by their families, the coaching staffs and the East-West Shrine Executive Committee, will tour the Portland unit Shrine Hospital. This will allow the players, families and coaching staffs to see first-hand the reason for the East-West game.

After visiting the hospital, the entourage will board buses to The Dalles for lunch and then to Eastern Oregon

State College in La Grande. At that time, the players will undergo physicals and equipment checks in preparation for the seven day training camp.

Saturday morning, August 5, these young athletes will learn to work with new teammates and coaches, and will learn new tactics, signals, terminologies and plays.

"By Saturday, August 12, in just one short week, these coaches and players will have formed the finest high school All-Star football teams in Oregon," said a Shrine news release. "This has become an endeavor in which there are no losers. Everyone who enters the stadium, whether player, alternate, attendant, coach or spectator, is a winner."

This year, in addition to their regular preschool program for three to four year olds, Creative Care Preschool is offering a pre-kindergarten program for children who will be five before November 1, but will not be attending public school due to the public school cut off date September 1.

The preschool urges anyone interested in their programs to attend the open house or call Michelle Raible, 422-7037, for more information or a private tour.

Correction

A story in the July 26 issue of the Gazette-Times, entitled, "Ione coach, player participate in state all-star match", was in error when it stated that the 'West' team won the match.

The story should have read, "It almost felt like East vs. West and the East won," said coach Charity McElligott.

McElligott, the Ione High School volleyball coach, was selected to coach the all-star game held Saturday, July 15. She coached the Mizuno Blue (East) Team.

CARD OF THANKS

I owe my heartfelt thanks to the staff and crew, at Pioneer Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home. I believe in my heart that it was just as hard on all of you as it was for my family and I to lose dad. He touched a lot of lives during his residency at the Nursing Home and made lots of friends that will not be forgotten.

We citizens of Morrow County are so very lucky to not only have a great hospital but we are truly blessed to have the personnel inside this hospital that makes everything work. They are the heart and soul of Pioneer Memorial.

Thank you, Dr. Jeanne. You were not only there for dad but for me too, during some very rough times. You are a very special person. And I thank you, Pat. Again, as residents of Morrow County we are very fortunate to have Pat among us. He helps us get through a very difficult time that we all must face. His professionalism, care and concern are very much appreciated.

My family and I want to thank all for the cards, phone calls and flowers. Grace, thank you for the beautiful words. And thank you, Melanie, for the wonderful poem. And please know that he's up there singing to Irene. He doesn't have to look for her anymore. He's home.

Special thanks to the Ione, Lexington and Heppner Fire departments for trying to save our house July 21, 1995, which unfortunately couldn't be saved. We are thankful you saved the places next door and that no one was injured. Also thanks to Arlynda Gates for notifying us. We appreciate it. And special thanks to Cody, William, Carolyn and Jim.

Sincerely,

There are so many T.V. shows on these days about life threatening situations we tend to become accustomed to the sound of sirens. They go screaming by unnoticed in most communities, but not ours, thank God!

Because of the quick response of the hospital employees who wear pagers and the curious ambulance chasers, my son is with us today.

There are no words that can express my gratitude, I would like to take this opportunity to thank some of these true heroes!

Matt Chetwood and Randy Van Etta, you are true heroes indeed! You should be given some sort of an award for your actions at the lake. Without them, no one would have known Mike was in trouble and needed the ambulance. You both truly saved his life and for that we are eternally grateful.

Also, I would like to thank the ambulance crew, who brought Mike in, kicking and screaming all the way! Shanna Paullus, Peggy and Mark Johnson, Gary Nolan, Merle Cowett and Mike Sweek.

And, a super big thanks to the hospital staff! Dr. Atkins, Lyn Ruetler, Don Monroe, Skylar Rukabaugh, Molly Rhea, Rusty Estes and Carolyn Wood.

I would like to give a special thanks to Sheryl Carty who not only helped in the ambulance and at the hospital, but also went to Portland with my family and me. You were a comfort to all of us.
