Enter Grain

Growers of commercial crops are encouraged to enter their products at the Morrow County Fair. There are departments for Grain, Grain Sheaves, Grasses and Hay, Alfalfa Hay Exhibits, Corn, Field Seed, Potatoes, Fruits and Wool. Please check the Fair Premium Book or call the Fair office at 676-9474.

4-H, FFA auction impressive

4-H Kids work on showman in preparation for livestock sale

Everyone is invited to attend the Livestock Auction, August 20, at 6 p.m. It will be held in the Beef Pavilion. Come out during the week and examine the quality of livestock the youth have prepared for your inspection. You will be impressed, I am sure. If you are interested in buying, but won't be around for the sale, please contact the Extension office, 676-9642.

When it comes to bearing the flag for the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Court, Tom Skultety is a "pro"!

Tom is the 14-year-old son of Chris and Judy Skultety, of Stanfield (formerly of Heppner), and is a brother to Princess Stefanie. Both Tom and Stefanie served as pennant bearers on the 1992 Court. Tom also has an older sister, Cynthia, and a brother, Bob.

Riding and wrangling is a family affair at the Skultetys, with young Tom riding "turn back" for his dad in cutting competition. As soon as Tom was old enough, he entered 4-H Livestock and Horse clubs, garnering many impressive awards. In addition to 4-H, Tom entered and won Grand Champion at the Union Jr. Show, won Jr. Showman in 1993 in Heppner and Reserve Grand Champion at the Jr. PI last year. At a national open show in Sacramento, California, Tom won Reserve Grand Champion for his Romagolias calf. He has been busy preparing his Hereford-Saler cross steer for the fair and is looking forward to being in FFA at Stanfield High School.

Tom also takes time out to play football, basketball and baseball, but admits that he has his eye on a career in the livestock business.

Tim Cundell to sing at fair

Our local celebrity, Tim Cundell, who provided hours of professional singing entertainment at the Lone Fourth of July celebration, will sing at the outside stage near the picnic area Friday afternoon, August 18, and Sunday morning, August 20, during the Wrangler's Breakfast.

4-H has new phone for fair

The phone number of the Fair office is 676-9474. If you have any questions concerning 4-H or need to contact that office during Fair Week, the number at the fairgrounds will be 676-9451.

Top stock for a top rodeo

For the fourth year, Beard Rodeo Company, owned and managed by Frank Beard of Ellensburg, Washington and Pat Beard of Hermiston will provide stock for the 1995 Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo. They will be bringing the best of their rodeo stock, including the 1992 top bareback horse in the Columbia River Circuit and who was also voted best bareback horse at the 1992 Dodge National Circuit Finals (DNCF). Thunderhead, another bareback horse, was voted second best bareback at the DNCF. Copenhagen Hecke was a national finals horse five years.

Their top bulls, Copenhagen Chucker (the star of last year's Lewiston Roundup), Sourdough Kid, Yo Yo, Cuddles and Yellow Knife will do their best to unseat anyone who is aboard. National Finals Rodeo (NFR) bronc Copenhagen Charlie's Girl and DNCF broncs Looking Glass Skoal, Cody Butte, Cotten Eye and Warpath will be some of the saddle broncs offering a challenge to the cowboys. The Beards have also added several outstanding new horses and bulls to the Beard Rodeo string.

Contractors are proud of their stock and do their best to find animals that test the strength and endurance of the rodeo contestants. So sit back and watch the human athletes try to beat the efforts of the animal athletes. They both relish their work.
