HAVE FUN AT THE FAIR

During her school years, Rondi has participated in 4-H and FFA where she has held offices and competed with sheep, horse and beef projects. During high school, she played varsity volleyball and basketball. A member of the Outdoor Club, she also took major roles in plays presented by the Drama Club.

No stranger to court life, Rondi was a princess on the 1993 Fair and Rodeo Court. She was again a princess on the Heppner High School Homecoming Court in 1994. She has also carried sponsor flags for rodeo entries and parades.

Having horses to ride has been part of the fun of growing up on a working cattle ranch, she claims, along with the opportunity to participate in community events and school activities.

This fall, after a busy summer as an ambassador for Morrow County, Queen Rondi plans to attend Portland Community College with an eye on becoming a paralegal.

Princess Michelle Meakins is the 18-year-old daughter of Bob and Lynna Meakins of Irrigon. Michelle has an older brother,

Princess Michelle, Princess Stephanie, Queen Rondi

Scott, and a younger brother, Eric. A 1995 graduate of Riverside High School, Princess Michelle plans to attend the University of Oregon this fall.

Princess Michelle has been an active 4-H'er for nine years. At horse shows, she has won many awards and she has competed successfully with her horse, swine, rabbit and goat projects in 4-H. Her interests are playing sports, camping, horseback riding and spending time with friends. At Riverside High School, she played on the varsity golf team for three years.

This outgoing young lady extends an invitation to everyone to attend the 1995 Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo. During this court's many mounted appearances, Princess Michelle is riding a 15-year-old Quarterhorse gelding named "Bet Ina Bonanza". Princess Stefanie Skultety, 17, is the daughter of Chris and Judy Skultety, Stanfield. Stefanie has an older brother, Bob, an older sister, Cynthia, and a younger brother, Thomas. Adept at training her own horses, this young lady completed her junior year at Stanfield High School. Her attachments to Morrow County stems from four years of living on a ranch near Heppner.

Princess Stefanie has a wide range of interests. She has participated on the H.H.S. dance team and in volleyball and golf. She has been involved in the Outdoor Club, the Wild Horse Club, FFA and 4-H. As an active member of her church youth group, she participated in World Youth Day in Denver that was attended by the Pope.

Along with school and activities, Princess Stefanie has been focusing on showing her Romagnola cattle at fairs, shows and sales. She exhibited the grand champion calf at the California State Fair this past year. She has also worked with professional trainers to enhance her skills with horses, dogs and livestock.

Princess Stefanie, like other court members, says she is proud to be representing Morrow County during their many public appearances this summer.

houses his collection of antique farm machinery and implements. This large exhibit of historic treasures has generously been donated to the county and the future home of Shorty's Museum will be relocated into a more spacious warehouse building in Heppner.

Along with a love of restoring old cars and machinery, the Pecks moved a log cabin from Thorn Creek to the fairgrounds. Harold restored this cabin and they furnished it in the style of that former era. It is often the focal point for visitors.

The Pecks are members of the Morrow County Historical Society, the First Christian Church, the Elk's Lodge and the Grange. The 1984 title of 'Man of the Year' was bestowed on Harold by the Heppner Chamber of Commerce in recognition of his community service. Yet this modest man downplays a lifetime of hard work and community involvement.

Tony Madrigal to entertain at fair

Tony Madrigal will be at the fair on Wednesday and Thursday to entertain fairgoers. Also entertaining during the four days of fair will be Tim Cundell and Dawn DeGoaw.

On Saturday and Sunday, various individuals can be found cooling off in the dunk tank. Come out and try to dunk your favorite target. Contests for all ages will be held during the fair.
