

Men's breakfast set for Sept. 17

The monthly Men's Breakfast will resume after the summer break this Sunday, Sept. 17, at the First Christian Church in Heppner. Breakfast will be served at 8 a.m. followed by a short Bible study.

All men and their sons are invited. The purpose of this monthly event is to provide male friendship and encourage one another in living Christian biblical values and ethics, said Duane Jones, pastor of the Nazarene Church.

Throughout the year, men from several local churches participate together to provide this breakfast and fellowship. This breakfast is tentatively planned to be held at the Nazarene Church, October 15, and Christian Life Center, November 19.

Hope-Valby Lutherans plan services

Valby Lutheran Church, on the Ione-Gooseberry Road, will celebrate Holy Communion this Sunday, Sept. 17. Sunday school will begin at 9 a.m. An adult class will meet at 8:15 a.m. to discuss the proposed ELCA document of worship and communion practices. Rikka Tews will play the organ and Pastor Hoobing will bring meditation entitled, "No Nonsense" based on scripture reading of Proverbs 25:6-7. Coffee hour will be held after service.

Celebration of Holy Communion and Sunday School at Hope Lutheran Church, Heppner, will be at 11 a.m. Dr. Jeanne Berretta will play the piano. Coffee hour will follow the service.

Services for the Condon Lutheran Mission at Condon United Church of Christ will be at 2 p.m.

St. Pat's to begin Catechism classes

Catechetical classes for first through eighth grades will begin at St. Patrick Catholic Church on Sunday, September 24. Classes will be held from 9:30-10:45 a.m. at the parish hall each Sunday.

The teachers will be using the Sadlier program which is "an exciting religious education curriculum, using an engaging approach for making children's faith come alive. Activities and music will reinforce and connect the children's faith to life," said a church spokesperson.

Teachers will be: Pam Worden, Shannon Miller, Bill Kuhn and Kathy Cutsforth. Music teacher is Lori Straley.

Anyone wishing to attend is welcome. Registration for classes will take place on Sunday, Sept. 17.

Arlington Church plans auction

The Arlington United Methodist Church will hold its annual auction and barbecue on Saturday, Sept. 16, at the Arlington down town mall.

The bake sale will begin at 10 a.m., with the auction, silent auction, flea market, country store and children's booth getting underway at 10:30 a.m. The barbecue lunch will begin at noon.

Door prizes will be awarded and an afghan raffle will be held.

Auctioneers are Frank Betencourt of TriAd Auctioneers and Terry Roberts.

Garden Club holds progressive dinner

The Heppner Garden Club featured a progressive dinner and tour of gardens at their meeting Sept. 11.

The tour began at the St. Patrick's Senior Center. The group first visited the gardens of Mary Goheen and Daisy Collins for appetizers, the Adlard landscaping and the gardening projects of residents of Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home.

Other stops were the homes of Bebe and Riley Munkers for salad, Ida Farra, Janel Lacey and Jane Rawlins for entrees and Betsy Kaiser and Vonnie Lovgren for dessert, where the business meeting was held.

Interested non-members were invited to join the tour.

All Saints' begin fall programs

All Saints' Episcopal Church begins its education and ministry programs for this school year on Sunday, Sept. 17 with a special "Welcome Back Sunday". Children's Sunday School will begin with worship in the church sanctuary at 10:30 a.m. Adult education will begin a new study of "The Revelation to John." Father Al Miller will lead this class beginning at 9:30 a.m. Child care is provided from 9:30 until church is over. Holy Eucharist will be offered to everyone. "Getting Your Life, Back on Track" will be Father Miller's sermon for this Sunday.

Lay readers and acolytes will meet following fellowship for some training, education and care surrounding Sunday morning worship.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

The seniors were saddened by the death of a very special lady, Florence Holt, former tenant and office volunteer at the Senior Center. The seniors' deepest sympathy is extended to the Holt family.

There were 94 people present for the senior dinner Sept. 6. One meal was home delivered. Members of the Baptist Church served. Lynn Bibby and Elsie Huston were the hostesses. Marion Brosnan won the free meal ticket and Loree Hubbard the bingo ticket. There was hearing aid assistance given and blood pressures taken before the meal.

The menu for Sept. 20 will be meatloaf and gravy, green beans, whipped potatoes, whole wheat rolls, fruit and cookies. Members of the Episcopal Church will serve.

Eighteen seniors and bus driver, Dot Halvorsen, enjoyed a steak dinner at the Condon senior meal site and a guided tour of the Summit Springs Senior Living Facility. It is beautiful and well-staffed, said a spokesperson.

Lunch was held for the Holt family at the Center, following the funeral services for Flo. Several seniors assisted.

Saturday afternoon, the senior bus, with about 12 on board, and Ed Baker, the driver, went to Pendleton where the seniors enjoyed dinner at the King's Table and the Dress-Up Parade at the rodeo grounds.

Eight people watched the movie, "The Silver Stallion" Sunday evening.

Tim Cundell will sing and play at the Senior Center, Oct. 7, from 6-8 p.m. for your listening and dancing pleasure. Put on your dancing shoes, bring finger foods and join the fun.

Other dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressure clinic 11 a.m., senior meal noon; Friday cards 2 p.m.; Sunday movie 7 p.m. There will be knitting, Oct. 3, from 7:30-9.
