

Lutherans announce church service

"Where Do You Live?", a sermon theme based on the reading of John 8:31-36, will be presented at Valby and Hope Lutheran Church by Pastor Stan Hoobing Oct. 29.

Worship service at Valby begins at 9 a.m. Sunday school children will practice for their Christmas program during the children's sermon time.

Worship service of Hope Lutheran Church, Heppner will begin at 11 a.m. Children will have an opportunity to attend Sunday School after the children's sermon.

A coffee hour will be held in the church basement following the reformation service. Visitors and friends are welcome to attend.

The congregation has begun an election process of selecting a color for the church pews. It will take three weeks to allow all members a chance to look and vote, said Pastor Stan Hoobing.

Counties share in forest receipts

Checks totaling about 104 million dollars have been received by 31 counties in Oregon and 27 counties in Washington as their portion of this year's interim payments from National Forest lands, according to Regional Forester John Lowe of the Pacific Northwest Region of the USDA Forest Service.

New local number for Internet access

Oregon ED-NET recently announced high-speed connectivity to the Internet and the state's on-line services and WWW sites for Heppner and seven other eastern Oregon communities.

Subscribers can connect at speeds up to 28.8 kps, the industry's highest speed standard. Oregon ED-NET is also now providing the new local dial-up numbers for COMPASS on-line subscribers. Heppner's number is 676-9906.

COMPASS is Oregon ED-NET's public online information service providing individuals with e-mail, Oregon bulletin boards, as well as Internet and Worldwide Web access.

Wild Horse club items on sale

The Heppner High School Wild Horse Club has many items for sale for sports fan.

Heavy hooded Mustang sweatshirts, lightweight pullover jackets, state champion sweatshirts, volleyball and football T-shirts, keychains and scarves would all make excellent Christmas gifts, according to a Wild Horse spokesperson.

The items are on display at Heppner TV and for sale at Heppner High School.
