Colts play exhibition game

The Heppner Colts Youth Football team ended its season with a halftime exhibition scrimmage at the Heppner High School football game against Pilot Rock, Friday, Oct. 20.

The young Heppner team, comprised of fifth and sixth graders, finished the year with a four win, one loss record. The Colts played several teams from the Hermiston-Boardman area. They played one game during half time of a Riverside-Heppner High School football game at Boardman.

"It was a really successful year," commented coach Chuck Matteson. "The kids learned a little bit and had a lot of fun. I think it was a positive experience." Matteson said that the coaches tried to impart the qualities of teamwork and trust emphasized by Greg Grant, high school football teacher and coach, who organized the program.

Coaches were Matteson, Kelly Fox and John McCabe.

Matteson ties for all-around honors

Lexi Matteson tied for reserve all-around cowgirl honors at the Eugene High School Rodeo recently. She took first place in barrels and poles and 10th in breakaway roping.

Teammates Annie Hisler and Matteson joined Mandy DUBY of Pendleton and competed for the Intermountain Rodeo team, which tied for first in cowgirl team standings at the rodeo. Only three girls can compete for team honors. Hisler, Matteson and DUBY were chosen from past successes of placings by the Intermountain Club.

Hisler, who has not seen much rodeo action for awhile, placed second in barrels at Eugene and seventh in poles.

Three Matteson children, Lexi, Lacey and Ryan won their respective age groups in Pee Wee Rodeo over the past year and received new saddles for their efforts.

Hisler recently traveled to Central Point with her aunt, Janice Davis of Hermiston, to compete in the last Columbia River Circuit rodeo. Hisler currently holds first place in permit standings, with Davis in 10th place in Columbia River Circuit standings.

High School rodeo will resume March 2-3.

Lexington Grange meets

By Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange met for their regular meeting on Monday evening with the master Clarence Buchanan in the chair. The charter was draped for Janice Cutsforth and Anita Boyer. Music was provided by Betty Marquardt and the chaplain Zelma McDaniel filled her position. Reports were given by the committee chairman and plans for Columbia Basin Electric dinner were discussed. The lecturer did not have a program because it was election time.

It was announced that Pomona Grange will meet at Willows Hall on Saturday, Oct. 28. The speaker will be Petr Hyes, exchange student from the Czech Republic, who is visiting the Stefani family in Ione.

A report was given on the grange insurance by agent Kathy Clark. An election of officers was held with the following elected: master Clarence Buchanan; overseer Barton Clark; lecturer Jean Nelson; assistant steward Lyle Peck; LAS Virginia Peck; chaplain Zelma McDaniel; treasurer Cecil Jones; secretary Delpha Jones; gatekeeper Elton Gilbert; steward Steve Yaw; Ceres, Verna Brinda; Pomona, Barbara Gilbert; and Flora, Dorothy Wilson. Plans were discussed for installation, with a date and time to be announced later.

Estes, Allstott win state bowling tourney

Cyde Estes (l) and Jackie Allstott (r) receive trophy necklaces and patches from Betty Branstetter, president SWBA.
