

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 107 present for the senior meal on Wednesday, Nov. 1, including 10 guests from Kinzua Resources. Kinzua had donated beef, pork and lamb, purchased at the livestock auction at the fair. Two meals were home delivered. Margaret Dubuque won the meal ticket and Grace Baker, the bingo ticket. Members of the Seventh Day Adventist and Nazarene churches served.

A sad farewell was said to Don and Shirley Haugen who will be moving to Pasco. They will be missed. We wish them happiness in their new home.

The menu for the Thanksgiving dinner, Nov. 15, is baked turkey roast, mashed potatoes with gravy, dressing, mixed vegetables, candied yams, cranberry sauce, rolls and pumpkin pie cake. Members of the Methodist Church will serve.

The Heppner Senior Meal Site had a fund raising soup and chili supper Monday evening, Oct. 30. It was well attended. Funds will be used for needed kitchen equipment. The help of the cooks and Coral Mitchell's volunteer crew is much appreciated.

The senior bus, driven by Ed Baker, took seniors out to the fairgrounds for the CBEC dinner Thursday evening, Nov. 2. Twelve volunteers folded newsletters for the Extension Service on Thursday. There was one table of pinocle in play Friday afternoon. Six people watched the movie, "Little Heroes" Sunday evening.

Dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressure clinic, 11 a.m., senior meal noon, quilting, 1 p.m.; Friday cards, 2 p.m.; Sunday movie, 6 p.m.

The quilters have started quilting the St. Patrick's quilt and could use more quilters.

The Senior Center is again asking for substitute volunteers because of illnesses and volunteers moving away. Call the office, 676-9030, or stop by and leave your name and which shift you prefer, morning or afternoon. Your help would be much appreciated.

Singspiration set at Lexington Church

Singspiration will be held Sunday, Nov. 12 at 7 p.m., at the Lexington Baptist Church.

The Singspiration, sponsored by the South Morrow County Ministerial Association, is held monthly during the school year. People from local churches meet to offer songs of praise and worship together.

During this time, the audience may select their favorite song or chorus for all to sing together. A freewill offering is taken, with the money used to help others in need. After the singing is over, those attending gather in the fellowship hall for refreshments and visiting.

The public is invited to join in on this ecumenical service. Anyone who would like to share a song is asked to think about it ahead and inform the group when first arriving at the church.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone who donated things for my coat drive. It would not have been possible without your help. And a special thanks to Carol Norris who knitted hats. Thank you, Elizabeth Allen 11-8-1c "Aaagh! Help! Oooh! Boo!"

We did it again! What a great turnout for the School Carnival and the Haunted House. I had a wonderful time organizing and setting up for this haunting event. The crew outdid themselves and put in great efforts to scare you people out of your wits and they did a great job! I had a large group of people this year, 43 to be exact, plus extras for patrolling and you all deserve a pat on the back. It's exciting to know people enjoyed it on both ends.

The following need to be acknowledged and they are: for donations, gifts, and time-Heppner Elks for basket, hangman, and such, and Roger Mortimore for asking; Shoe Box for body parts; Ken and Kaedene Bailey family for haunting items and especially time; Jay, Darcy and Jode Coil for items and your "bouncer" ability!; Russell and Drew Brannon for time and patience; Bob DeSpain for carpentry, time and your poor, abused pick-up (I've told you, you can say no to your daughter!); Arletha Brannon for candelabras and candles; Herman Winters for pumpkins, they made a wonderful gift for those who didn't have one; Tom and Jane Rawlins for the cornstalks; Jeff, Christal, Sheena and Josh Shank for the blocks of wood; Clyde and Jackie Allstott for the electric chair; Alan Burkenbine for saving the wonderful bones; Doug Orwick for the Haunted House book, it had great ideas and ones we plan to use next year too; Braden and Mikel Britt and Brittany Boothe were great helpers and I know they will be experts by the time I need them in 5 years.

Big thank you's to the people who helped me keep it together: Jay Coil, Ken Bailey, Ron Bowman (and what would I do without you? Oh keep it to yourself!); Kirsten Harrison, Marcia Anderson, Sid and Cindy Kennedy and Hoby Hansen for helping clean up.

I couldn't do it without the crew and they are: ticket takers-Monica Burkenbine and Seth Givens; tourers-Abby Kahl, Tracy Rankin, Jayme Hansen, Sherry Sieler; head on platters-Brett Barber, Lacey Matteson, Kelsey Greenup; gypsies-Claire Anderson and Julie Proctor; electric chair-Kimberly and Susan Hansen, Michael McCabe, Ryan Matteson; scarecrow-Tai Sweeck; coffin-Elliott Strouse, Josh Sharp, Royal Robinson; Cemetery-Chris and Brad Bowman, Leif Nesse; dungeon-Meghan Bailey, Shelley Rietmann; hangman-Krista Adams, Sarah Eckman, Camille Sykes; tunnel-Alecia Strouse, Tara Ozment, Brandi and Jeanette Brantley, Echo, Brandi Burnett; Nightmare on Elm Street-Ben Hubert, Trisha Adams, Leah Denton, Macy Rhea; chained man-John Sargent; thing-Melinda Smith, Roxie Miller; and the ninja-Marcy Miller.

Thank you all so much for a job well done. I hope to see some of you back again next year for another "bigger and better" spooky and thrilling haunted house!

Kaedene, we did an AWE-SOME job! I'll be Back!

Merry Brannon 11-8-1c
