Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

Town and Country, board nominees, Christmas decoration refurbishment, Thanksgiving preparation in the midst of Christmas openings, St. Patrick's planning, and, most important, time for family. "Walk in balance," said the keynote speaker at the Rural Futures Form, and, indeed, everyone needs to do just that as we give thanks for our many blessings and prepare for the holiday season.

Heppner Chamber invites one and all to participate in the creation of the Hometown Holiday Tree between the Shoe Box and post office. Adults, students, organizations, churches, classes—everyone is encouraged to create a durable, weatherproof, four to six inch ornament with hanger attached to hang on the downtown tree this year. Identification may be included on the decoration, i.e. "class of '62, name, greeting". Ornaments may be snowmen, photos, wooden, tin, stars, snowflakes, etc., as long as they depict goodwill.

It is hoped these can be used every year for many years to come and the event will become an annual community happening. Musicians are invited to participate.

The community event will take place on Friday, Dec. 1, between 4:30-5:30 p.m. at the tree, or ornaments may be left at the Chamber office by Thursday, Nov. 30. Visit Heppner businesses on Saturday, Nov. 18, during the season opening to get in the ornament spirit.

Next week at Chamber, citizens from Pilot Rock involved in the new youth/parent program will be present to answer questions and discuss its success. All interested persons are welcome to attend at Kate's, upstairs, Tuesday noon.

Thought for the week: "Laughter is the shock absorber that eases the blows of life."

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 88 people present for the senior dinner Nov. 8, including two guest from Weston. Two meals were home delivered. Marguerite Messenger won the meal ticket and Margret Dubuque the bingo ticket. Members of the Baptist Church of Lexington served.

Hearing aid assistance was given and blood pressures taken before the meal. The Senior Center board meeting was postponed. Mary Jean and Ernie McCabe decorated the dining room for Thanksgiving; they did a beautiful job.

The menu for the senior meal Nov. 22 will be: lamb chop, chicken wings, mashed potatoes and gravy, pea salad, rolls, fruit and cookies. Members of the Episcopal Church will serve.

One table of pinochle was played Friday afternoon. Ten seniors watched the movie, "Gordy", Sunday evening.

Dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressure clinic, 11 a.m., senior meal, noon, quilting, 1 p.m.; Friday cards, 2 p.m.; Sunday movie, 6 p.m.

The Senior Center office will be closed Thursday, Nov. 23 and Friday, Nov. 24 for the Thanksgiving holiday.

G-T to close on November 23-24

The Heppner Gazette-Times will close Nov. 23 and 24 for the Thanksgiving holiday. Have a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

In the Service

Navy Seaman Apprentice Danniell J. Lytle, a 1995 graduate of Lone High School, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, IL.

During the eight-week program, Lytle completed a variety of training which included classroom study, practical hands-on instruction and an emphasis on physical fitness. In particular, Lytle learned naval customs, first aid, fire fighting, water safety and survival and a variety of safety skills required for working around ships and aircraft.

Lytle and other recruits also received instruction on the Navy's core values: honor, courage and commitment and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct, said a naval news release.
