James "Bill" Long

The funeral for James "Bill" William Long was held Saturday, December 23, 1995, at the Boardman Community Church, with burial following at Riverview Cemetery in Boardman.

Mr. Long, 71, of Boardman, died Thursday, December 21, 1995, at Good Shepherd Community Hospital in Hermiston.

He was born November 28, 1924, at Pocatello, Idaho, to James and Helen Arnsward Long. He was raised in the Los Angeles, California area and attended schools there. He served with the U.S. Navy during World War II and after his discharge, returned to Los Angeles.

On September 19, 1970, he married Jeanette Strawderman at Reno, Nevada. They continued to live at Los Angeles until 1977 when they moved to Sacramento, California.

Mr. Long worked as a bus driver for Greyhound and other bus lines before his retirement. He and his wife moved to Boardman in 1984.

Mr. Long enjoyed working on automobiles.

Survivors include his wife, Jeanette, at the home; his mother, Helen F. Long, of Boardman; daughters, Pamela Long of Boardman, Jeanne Phillips of Franklin, North Carolina and Nona Basford of Ione; sons, Del Crowell of Boardman and Russell Crowell of West Sacramento, California; 15 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, James; brother Robert; sister Gladys E. LeFard, and two grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 1425 N.E. Irving St., Suite 100, Portland, Oregon 97232, or the American Lung Association at 9320 S.W. Barbur Blvd., Suite 140, Portland, Oregon 97219.

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston was in charge of arrangements.

Orville L. Pellett

Orville Louis Pellett, 85, of Irrigon, died Monday, December 18, 1995, at Good Samaritan Center in Hermiston.

Graveside funeral service was scheduled for Thursday, December 21, 1995, at the Desert Lawn Memorial Cemetery in Irrigon.

Mr. Pellett was a resident of Irrigon since 1971. He worked as a heavy duty mechanic and welder for the Oregon State Highway Department for more than 20 years.

He was a former member of the Irrigon Lions. His hobbies included fishing and boating.

He married his wife, Betty, on December 31, 1968, in Hermiston.

Survivors include his wife, Betty, at home; and sister, Esther Swift of Yocolt, Washington.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Stokes Landing Senior Center Trust Fund, P.O. Box 614, Irrigon, Oregon 97844.

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston was in charge of arrangements.

BMCC winter term begins Jan. 2

Blue Mountain Community College's (BMCC) winter term gets underway Tuesday, Jan. 2, with a variety of classes offered in the area. Along with the non-credit classes offered in Heppner, Ione and Lexington, a selection of college credit video classes are now available to placebound students.

Several computer courses are available this term, including Word for Windows, Intro to the Internet, Welcome to the Macintosh and Multimedia and the Macintosh.

Word for Windows is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 24, from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. at Heppner Elementary School. Intro to the Internet is set for Saturday, March 9, at Heppner High School from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuition is $45 per class.

The Macintosh classes are set up for a Thursday evening (5-9 p.m.) and Friday session (9 a.m.-4 p.m.). Welcome to the Macintosh is scheduled for Heppner on Jan. 25-26, and Ione on Feb. 8-9. Multimedia and the Macintosh is scheduled for Feb. 15-16 in Heppner.

BMCC closed for New Year's, Jan. 1-2

Blue Mountain Community College (BMCC) will be closed Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 1-2, for New Year's. The Admissions and Advising office, Business office, Financial Aid office and Continuing Education office will be open the rest of Christmas break.

Most other BMCC departments are closed for the entire Christmas break, Dec. 18-Jan. 2. These include the Emigrant Hall Computer Lab, the Basic Skills department, the bookstore and McCrae Activity Center. The campus will be open Jan. 3 for a staff in-service day.

Winter term 1996 begins Monday, Jan. 8, for day and evening classes. Registration will be held Thursday and Friday, Jan. 4-5. Students are encouraged to make their registration appointments with an academic advisor prior to those dates.

For students who will be new to BMCC and who have never attended college, the registration process starts with placement testing. The Admissions and Advising office in Pioneer Hall generally offers placement tests on Monday and Thursday at 11 a.m., unless the campus

Cost is $45 per session.

Cross-country skiing will be offered in the mountains above Heppner on the four Saturdays in February, with personalized instruction from members of the Arbuckle Nordic Club. An orientation session will be held Tuesday, Jan. 16, to cover basics of the sport and to make equipment arrangements. Cost of the class is $20.

In Ione, Circuit Training Fitness will begin on Wednesday, Jan. 3 at the Elementary School gym and an Infant/Child CPR class is on the agenda for Saturday, Feb. 24.

Other offerings include Quilting in the Log Cabin Star pattern, Tin Punch Art, and Hand-gun Proficiency.

Preregistration is encouraged for all classes and may be done by mail using the form on the back page of the winter term bulletin. For a copy of the bulletin, a registration form or more information on these classes or a complete listing, contact Anne Morter, Morrow County BMCC coordinator, (541) 422-7040.

BMCC plans TALN events in January

The public is invited to attend two events hosted by the Blue Mountain Community College Technology Access for Life Needs (TALN) project during January.

On Friday, Jan. 5, TALN will hold a public hearing to discuss how well it is meeting the technology needs of people with disabilities in eastern Oregon. The public is also invited to discuss barriers to getting assistive technology. The hearing will be held from 5-6 p.m. in Pioneer Hall, room 148. Refreshments will be provided.

On Thursday, Jan. 11, TALN will host an open house for the Deaf and Hearing Impairment Access Program (DHIAP). This event provides the public with an opportunity to become better acquainted with the services DHIAP offers to the deaf and hearing impaired. DHIAP also provides referrals for interpretive services. The open house will be held from 2:30-5 p.m. in Pioneer Hall, room 148. Refreshments will be provided.

For more information on either of these events, contact Amy Spiegel at (541) 276-1260, ext. 373.

Registration appointments for returning or transfer students can be made by calling the Admissions and Advising office at 276-1260, ext. 206.

BMCC offers employment assistance

The unemployed and underemployed will have an opportunity to upgrade their academic skills and learn self-improvement techniques through Pre-employment Preparation or PEP. The course will be offered winter term through the Blue Mountain Community College (BMCC) West Campus in Hermiston. This 14-week course is offered free of charge to adults ages 17 years and older.

In addition to reading and writing, some of the topics students will be involved in include time management, goal setting, communication, computers and problem solving, just to name a few. By taking this course, students may have an opportunity to earn their GED and qualify for scholarships and grants for additional schooling in the fall.

School starts Monday, Jan. 29 and runs Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. for 14 weeks. There are only 25 positions available, so those interested in participating in PEP may contact the BMCC West Campus at 567-1800 as soon as possible.
