The Mathenys—1995

The Mathenys—1945

Orval and Pauline Matheny of Heppner marked their 50th wedding anniversary Dec. 31, 1995. They celebrated with a dinner for family and friends.

Orval Matheny and Pauline Rauch were married Dec. 31, 1945, in Pendleton.

He was raised in Echo and graduated from Echo High School. He served with the U.S. Army in the Philippines during World War II. She was raised on the Rauch family ranch at Alpine and also graduated from Echo High.

The newlyweds settled in Heppner, where Orval worked for the Rural Electric Association. Later the couple worked the family ranch. Their son, David Matheny of Lexington, and his family took over the operation in 1986.

The couple also has two daughters, Sally Matheny of Heppner and Sandy Fennessy of Libby, Montana; and five grandchildren.

Wedding

Hughes—Knox

Carolyn Hughes and Loren Knox, both of Springfield, were married in Eugene on January 2, 1996. Maureen Balding, Lane County deputy clerk, performed the outdoor ceremony on the terrace of the Eugene Public Service Building. Witnesses for the couple were Deanna Conley, sister of the groom, and William Neer, a friend of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Gail Hughes of Heppner and the late Allen Hughes. She is a graduate of Heppner High School and Southern Oregon State College, and is employed by the Oregon Department of Corrections in Eugene.

Knox is the son of Joyce Knox of Dexter and Lloyd Knox of Leeburg. He is a graduate of McKenzie High School and Lane Community College, and is employed as a machinist at Conix Research in Springfield.

Engagement

Bothum—Aschenbrener

Janice Bothum of Pendleton and Jim Bothum of Redmond, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mollie Bothum, to Sean Aschenbrener, both of Paso Robles, California. The bride-elect's grandparents are Ralph and Mary Beamer of Heppner.

The bride-elect, a 1990 Round-Up princess, graduated with honors from both Pendleton High School and California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, where she received bachelor's and master's degrees. She also attended Oregon State University, Corvallis. She teaches agriculture and biology at Paso Robles High School.

Aschenbrener is the son of Mike and Ginger Aschenbrener of Paso Robles. He graduated from Paso Robles High. He works as a computer specialist and operates his own business.

The couple will be married June 29, at North County Christian Fellowship Church in Paso Robles.

Obituary

Roberta Moffett

Roberta Moffett, 81, Boardman, died January 19, 1996, at Good Shepherd Community Hospital in Hermiston.

Memorial services were held on Tuesday, January 23, 1996, at the Boardman Community Church. A gathering of family and friends at the Boardman Grange Hall followed the service. Private cremation was held earlier.

Mrs. Moffett was born August 28, 1914 in Trinidad, Colorado to Robert and Myrtle Phillips Saddoris. She was raised and lived in Colorado until 1964 when she moved to California. She moved to Oregon in 1973 and settled in Boardman in 1986, where she lived since.

She enjoyed playing cards, watching sports, listening to the country top forty on the radio, showing dogs, her racehorses, and playing slot machines.

Mrs. Moffett is survived by her son, Sonny Field, Dayville; daughter, Meri Lynn Hurd, Boardman; brother Phil Saddoris, Pueblo, Colorado; seven grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Houston; her daughter, Dona Shasteen; and brother, Bobby Saddoris.

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston was in charge of arrangements.

Lexington Grange holds meeting

By Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange met recently for their regular meeting, which was a pancake supper with the men cooking and serving ham, eggs and pancakes.

The program was held at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of the lecturer. Pam Sagely spoke about the Ambulance Membership Program, which is part of the Tri-County Ambulance Association. It includes Gilliam, Wheeler and Morrow counties. The membership covers the immediate family-spouse, and all unmarried dependents under 21 living in the member's residence. Kevin Erich was also present and he and Sagely answered questions from the group.

The business meeting was called to order by Master Clarence Buchanan. The County Deputy installed some of the officers who had not been previously installed, Barton Clark as overseer; Verna Brinda, Ceres; Barbara Gilbert, Pomona; Lyle Peck, executive committee member; and Eldon Gilbert, gatekeeper.

The charter was draped for Archie Bechdolt. The ballot cast for applicants was found favorable. Legislative committee chairman, Barton Clark, gave an interesting report including the concern about the virus that has attacked the rabbits in Australia, the removal of domestic sheep in the Hells Canyon National Recreation Area and the grazing of cattle along the creeks and riverbanks.

The GWA chairman, Virginia Peck, reported on the new super committees and planned a meeting for Monday, Jan. 22 at RJs at Lexington, which was a luncheon meeting. Plans will be discussed for the Valentine card party planned for the Grange.

The auditing committee report was read and approved. The group was reminded of Pomona which will meet at the Lexington Grange Hall on Saturday, Jan. 27 at 10:30 a.m.

Insurance agent Kathy Clark gave a report. Anyone wanting information on insurance is urged to call her.

Hunting bear and cougar with dogs was discussed and a resolution committee of Barton Clark, Barbara Gilbert and Eldon Gilbert was appointed to have a resolution ready for action at Pomona. The chaplain reported on cards and gifts to the ill.

BIG FLAT #3 AND HORSE COMMERCIAL FIREWOOD SALE

USDA-Forest Service
Umatilla National Forest
Heppner Ranger District
Morrow County, Oregon

On January 8, 1996, Heppner District Ranger, Delanne Ferguson, decided to implement the Big Flat #3 Commercial Firewood Sale and the Horse Commercial Firewood Sale. The Big Flat #3 Sale will produce approximately 120 cords of firewood from three acres. The Horse Sale will produce approximately 160 cords of firewood from four acres. The purpose of these sales is to provide firewood and improve overall forest health, while reducing the fire hazard and the number of danger trees.

The Decision Memo and associated project file are available upon request from the Heppner Ranger District, P.O. Box 7, Heppner OR 97836.

This decision is not subject to appeal, since the sales qualify as salvage as described in the provisions of subsection 2001(e) of Public Law 104-19. The documents and procedures required for the preparation, advertisement, offering, awarding, and operation of these salvage projects shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of the applicable environmental laws as listed in subsection 2001(i) of Public Law 104-19. This salvage decision is subject to judicial review only in the United States district court for the district in which the affected Federal lands are located. As required under Section 2001 (f)(1) of Public Law 104-19, any challenge to these salvage projects must be filed in the district court within 15 days after the advertisement of the sale.
