

Soroptimist Club initiates members

Soroptimist International Club of Heppner recently installed two new members, Andrea Mortimer and Meg Murray. Mortimer, employed by First Interstate Bank, has the financial services classification, and Murray joined under the cattle ranching classification.

The local chapter of the world's largest service organization for women will staff the information booth at the upcoming Wee Bit O'Ireland in March. Members will host the Senior Girls Luncheon for Heppner and Lone senior girls and their mothers in May.

Local Soroptimists meet regularly the first three Thursdays of the month during the lunch hour. Soroptimist involvement is open to all business and professional women interested in community service. "It is particularly helpful to those new in the community," said Carol Michael.

For more information about participating in Soroptimist International of Heppner, contact Michael, 676-9642, or Nancy Snider, 422-7410, member recruitment and retention committee.

Morrow County Historical Society board holds its quarterly meeting

By Delpha Jones

The quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Morrow County Historical Society was held at the home of Jim and Barbara Bloodsworth on Sunday, Jan. 21.

Minutes of the past meeting were read and accepted. A report was given on the kiosk at Well Spring near the Charlie Doherty ranch. A committee of Barton Clark and Cecil Jones was appointed to do some cleaning up of a cemetery on Rhea Creek Road.

The Chronicle committee reported that they are in the process of preparing the 1996 Chronicles. Any stories of the area will be greatly appreciated. The president thanked the committee for their past work on this project.

The essay to be presented at the Morrow County Fair was discussed and the committee will soon have the rules ready for anyone interested in this project. The rules will also be printed in the Fair Book. The committee working on this project are Barbara Bloodsworth, Betty Carlson and Don Eppenbaugh.

The trip scheduled for May was discussed and the letters will be out soon concerning this. The Society needs to hear from those interested soon after the information is out to make plans and hold the bus for May 9-12. The trip to Isaquah, Washington will include a time through Rosalind, where the t.v. series, "Northern Exposure" was made, a 3½-hour trip in a train coach built in 1937 and other places of interest.

Following reports and other business of the day, an election of officers was held, with the following elected: Delpha Jones, president, Harold Peck, vice-president, and Ruth McCabe, secretary.

The meeting was preceded with a potluck dinner. An exchange of late Christmas gifts was held following the meeting. Those present were the host and hostess, Jim and Barbara Bloodsworth, Don and Donna Eppenbaugh from Irri-gon, Harold and Edna Peck, Cecil and Delpha Jones, Jean Nelson, Barton Clark and Kathryn Hoskins.

SMCST to sponsor fund drive

1996 marks the 35th anniversary of the National Dollars For Scholars. To celebrate this occasion, the South Morrow County Scholarship Trust (SMCST), a local chapter of Dollars For Scholars, is having a fund drive during the month of February.

Cans have been placed in stores and businesses in Lone, Lexington and Heppner. The SMCST is asking for a dollar contribution per resident for their scholarship program for local high school students.

Dollars For Scholars is a grassroots non-profit organization providing financial assistance and community support for students seeking post-secondary educational opportunities. All the money raised in this drive will go to area students, said Reverend Stan Hoobing, president of SMCST.

The cash for cans event marks a special occasion for the Dollars for Scholars and is part of the national celebration. "1996 Year of the Scholar... Hope for Every Student". Across the country, over 750

Dollars for Scholars chapters are joining the celebration to raise funds and awareness for their students.

The SMCST is a community-based, volunteer-directed chapter. In 1993, Dollars for Scholars chapters in 40 states distributed nearly $7.1 million to 14,200 students in their communities. Since the program's creation in 1958, Dollars For Scholars has awarded over $61 million to 130,000 students.

For more information about Dollars for Scholars and the local chapter, contact Reverend Hoobing, 676-9940.
