HHS Dance Team schedules clinic

The Heppner High School Dance Team has once again planned a dance clinic for area young people.

This year's clinic, open to anyone in kindergarten through 12th grade, will be held Monday through Thursday, Feb. 12-15, from 3:45 to 5 p.m. at the Heppner High School cafeteria.

Transportation to the clinic will be provided by school bus from the elementary school to the high school.

Cost for the clinic is $5 per pupil.

'Casper the Ghost' is this year's theme for the clinic. Flyers advertising the event were to go home with grade school students this week.

Parents are asked to sign release forms and return them to the high school as soon as possible or by the first day of the clinic.

Students attending the clinic will perform during half time of the Heppner High School boys' varsity basketball game vs. Sherman County Saturday, Feb. 17. Approximate time of the performance will be 7 p.m.

For more information, call Martha Munkers, 676-9138 days, or 989-8538 evenings.

DA's Report

The Morrow County District Attorney's office in Heppner reports handling the following business during the past week:

Jan. 25: Michael Wayne Phillips, 42, Irrigon, previously convicted of Burglary I on Feb. 16, 1995, appeared in court on Jan. 25 for probation revocation proceedings. He failed to pay court-ordered obligations and absconded supervision; as a result, he was ordered to serve 30 days in county jail, serve the remainder of his probation and ordered to pay $1610 by February 1998.

Nathan R. Hammons, 42, formerly of Heppner, was convicted of Driving While License Suspended and ordered to pay a fine of $125, plus assessments totalling $76 and sentenced to 30 days in county jail, suspended on the condition that he pay $201 within one year.

Jay Dean Stanridge, Grants Pass, was convicted of Driving While License Revoked, sentenced to 30 days in county jail, suspended on the condition that he pay $373, to be paid within 18 months of sentencing.

Linda Kuntz, 29, Portland, was cited into court for Failure to Pay Court-Ordered Child Support, sentenced to 30 days in jail, suspended on the condition that she pay $110 a month for 24 months.

Feb. 2: Casey D. Rodriguez, in probation revocation proceedings, was found in Contempt of Court. His probation was extended to Feb. 2, 1998 and he was given credit for five days served in county jail and ordered to pay $50 a month court-ordered obligations which he had failed to satisfy.

Mark Alan Mills, Klamath Falls, originally cited for No Angling License on Nov. 2, 1991, failed to appear for the hearing. A bench warrant was issued and he was arrested and ordered to serve 30 days in county jail, suspended all but one day, with one year's probation, and pay assessments totalling $73 before expiration of his probation.

Hope, Valby churches plan services

"You have heard it said, but I say it unto you" is the theme of the sermon that Pastor Stan Hoobing will be giving to the congregations of Hope and Valby Lutheran on Sunday, Feb. 11. It is also the Sunday of the month that the congregational members pick the hymns for the Service of the Word celebration.

The service and Sunday School at Valby is at 9 a.m., with Sarah Carlson accompanying the congregation on the piano.

Worship and Sunday School at Hope Lutheran will be at 11:00 a.m. Dr. Jeanne Berretta will accompany the congregation on the piano.

"Jesus the Messiah Among Us" is a special Bible study planned for members and friends of Hope Lutheran. It meets in the church basement on Sunday mornings at 10 a.m. Men, women and teenagers are welcome to attend.

Friday School will be back at Hope on Friday, Feb. 9 from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Parents and children are reminded to bring offerings for the Heifer Project, a program to provide food for third world countries and to help disadvantaged children in the New York City area.

Obituaries

Robert D. Runnion

Funeral Mass for Robert D. Runnion was this Wednesday morning, February 7, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner with concluding service and interment following at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mr. Runnion, 69, of Woodburn, formerly of Pendleton and Heppner, died Thursday, February 1, 1996, at Sun City, Arizona.

He was born January 14, 1927, at Douglas, Wyoming, to V.R. and Pearl Williams Runnion. He attended school in Wyoming before the family moved to Heppner where he graduated from high school.

He enlisted and served with the U.S. Navy during World War II.

In 1948, he married Jean Turner at Heppner.

He then attended and graduated from the University of Oregon.

The couple moved to Pendleton in 1950 where they lived until 1992 when they moved to Woodburn.

Mr. Runnion had several occupations during his time in Pendleton, including deputy sheriff, gas station owner, radio sales manager and manager of the local SAIF office. He retired in 1986.

He was a long time member of the Elks and Lions organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Jean, at the home; sons, Bill and Steve, both of Portland, Todd of Eugene; daughter Janet Jobs of Eugene; sister, Geraldine DeSimone, of Eugene; and three grandchildren.
