Speakeasy planned for March 9

Claire Anderson (right) and Meghan Bailey team up to give a presentation at the Speakeasy.

Speakeasy, a 4-H public speaking workshop, will be held on Saturday, March 9, at the Gilliam County Fairgrounds in Condon. Activities will begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude around 2:30 p.m. Gilliam County Oregon State University Extension agent, Cindy Osterlund, will conduct the workshop with assistance from teen 4-H members.

"The easiest way to learn how to do a presentation is to attend a 'Speakeasy' field day. This workshop is filled with activities that will help you overcome the fear of speaking in public. We'll play games, watch sample presentations and use fun kits to practice creating presentation," says Osterlund.

Participants are asked to bring a sack lunch.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

St. Paddy's Day is but a month away. The brochures are now available. Each and everyone is encouraged to mail them out to friends and relatives and to take them along on conferences and to out-of-town meetings.

The Chamber had a preview of the Saturday night musical show "The Irish Cowboy," featuring the Blue Mountain Barbershop Chorus from La Grande. Tickets are sure to disappear rapidly. You won't want to miss this story of a young man from Ireland who comes to Heppner to be a cowboy.

There's something for everyone this year, from researching your Irish heritage at the museum, to volkswalking, entering the "wee" bit o'fun with Porta-Potties on the run race or bidding on an old claw-legged bathtub during the auction, not to mention lots of Irish music, food and shenanigans. Trained 4-H'ers will be providing babysitting services at the Methodist Church. A wee bit o'fun (and work) for everyone.

Chamber membership renewals are coming in. The committee will soon be launching a membership drive to encourage all businesses and individuals to join the organization "dedicated to creating a positive environment where business, community and people thrive." It's a great opportunity to be involved in plans and activities for your community and outlying areas, to share your concerns and ideas and to keep the lines of communication open with all entities. Pay us a visit, Tuesdays, noon, at Kate's.

Thought for the week: "Our five senses are incomplete without the sixth...humor!"
