

Lady Cardinals win semi-finals

By Kara Miller
The lone Lady Cardinals controlled the opening tip of the game against the North Lake Cowgirls in the 1A basketball semifinals game in Baker City and never looked back, taking the game 50-18.

Jenny Sullivan scored the first two points, followed by Melissa McElligott and Laree Anderson each with two. Sullivan was fouled on a put back attempt and scored on both of her free throws. Then Anderson swished a three-point shot and McElligott hit one from behind the arc. Anderson was fouled and sank both free throws to end the quarter, lone 18, North Lake 4. The Cardinals were off and running to a lopsided victory.

Lone held North Lake to just four points in each of the first two quarters. At the half time break, the score was lone 28, North Lake 8. The Cardinals picked up 12 more in the third on a lay up by McElligott and put backs by Heideman and Nikki Sullivan while Anderson hit another three and Dawn Boor got one from behind the arc on an assist from McElligott. Lone kept the tempo slow with a patient offense.

Fourth quarter opened with North Lake in possession but they turned the ball over and Heideman scored two more for the Cardinals. J. Sullivan was fouled and bulls-eyed her free throws. Heideman added another two, Brenda Holtz hit a field goal and N. Sullivan scored on a field goal to close out the final quarter. The Cardinals finished with 50 while North Lake had 18.

"It was team ball," coach Dana Heideman said. He credited aggressive defense for the victory. "We put a hand in their face and took them out of their offense." Lone's defense forced hurried shots and resulting in seven for 53 shooting for the Cowgirls. Lone also dominated the glass with a huge 42-27 advantage.

McElligott finished with game highs in rebounds with 11 and assists with five. She also had 10 points. N. Sullivan and Heideman each had seven rebounds while J. Sullivan and Anderson had six each. Anderson also had two steals and 10 points for the Cardinals and J. Sullivan had six points.

Lady Cardinals victorious in championship bid

By Kara Miller

Although the lone Lady Cardinals have beaten the Powers Cruisers two out of the three times the teams have met, this championship matchup victory was the sweetest. Lone kept to their game plan, and in the end their defensive pressure and run-run offense overpowered the Cruisers, 60-46, in the state 1A basketball championship in Baker City Saturday, March 2.

Powers' 6'5" Jenny Mowe got the opening tip to a teammate who turned the ball over. Cardinals' Jenny Sullivan put the first two points on the board for lone, followed by a three-point bucket by Melissa McElligott and two by Stephanie Haguewood. Powers came roaring back with Mowe scoring three unanswered baskets. Lone's Dawn Boor hit a three-pointer and quickly followed with a steal, culminating in a two point put up. McElligott successfully hit a three-point basket and the first quarter ended with lone in the lead by one, 15-14.

Mowe scored 20 of her 28 team-high points by the half and Powers led 29-25 at the close of two. The Cards had another good team effort in the second quarter with McElligott, Haguewood, Suzy Heideman and Laree Anderson all scoring. However, Heideman also picked up her third foul early in the quarter and spent much of the period on the bench.

The third period of play saw a change in lone's defense and they put more pressure on the ball. The quick pace of the game wore down Powers' Mowe and she was held scoreless in the third while lone scored 14 more points to take the lead 39-38 at the end of three.

Tori Odinet opened the fourth quarter for lone hitting a two point field goal. Powers lost the ball to McElligott and fouled her in the process. McElligott hit both free throws. Mowe then seemed to catch a second wind and went on a scoring streak, nailing three unanswered close range baskets in a row.

McElligott then hit a three-point basket; Powers lost the ball on a turnover and committed a non-shooting foul on her. Boor took the inbound pass and swished another three-point basket. Mowe scored two more points for Powers, then as time began to run out, they began to foul McElligott. She hit seven out of 10 charity shots and a field goal in the final minutes of the period to finish the last game of her high school career with a team and game-high 30 points.

Boor and Heideman both finished with 10 points, while Anderson had four and Odinet, Haguewood and Jenny Sullivan each added two. Lone out-hustled Powers, causing the Cruisers to turn the ball over 27 times, 19 of them on steals, compared to the seven turnovers by lone, two of which were steals. The final buzzer went off with the score lone 60, Powers 46.

STATS: Powers (46). L. Stallard 1 1-1 3, Griffith 4 0-0 8, Looney 3 0-0 6, Mowe 14 0-0 28, Rector 0 1-2 1, Grotting, S. Stallard, Rayevich, Clauson, Thornton. TOTALS: 22 2-3 46.

lone (60). Anderson 2 0-0 4, Haguewood 1 0-0 2, McElligott 9 9-13 30, J. Sullivan 1 0-0 2, Heideman 5 0-2 10, Boor 4 0-2 10, Odinet 1 0-0 2, N. Sullivan. TOTALS: 23 9-17 60.
