Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

The Chamber will be conducting a membership drive during the month of April. Board members will be making contacts to invite new businesses to join Chamber. This is an agri-business community and ranchers and farmers, as well as individuals and organizations interested in the promotion and well-being of Heppner are invited to join.

What does an investment in your Chamber mean for you?

Your Chamber is your advocate...striving to improve community understanding of issues by presenting the business perspective on important topics. All entities are invited to report at the first monthly Chamber meeting. Members get first-hand community reports.

Your Chamber is your sales manager...the Chamber sells the city, county and local products and services to people everywhere through networking and referrals.

Your Chamber is your public relations firm...welcoming visitors, new people, and events to Heppner to promote our quality of living and bring in business.

Your Chamber is your information bureau...with relocation and visitor packets and a wealth of information to encourage people to spend time in Heppner.

Your Chamber is your voice in the community...the Chamber serves as spokesman for the business membership when a unified stand needs to be taken.

Your Chamber is your research service...maintaining club, organization, church, business lists, as well as a Heppner Fact Sheet and medical and educational information.

Your Chamber multiplies your effectiveness in your community...providing the structure, volunteer leadership, and staff to implement an effective program to meet business and community needs.

Your Chamber needs to hear your voice...the Chamber can provide seminars and informative programs to enhance your business and create new events and activities with your input.

Join the Heppner Chamber of Commerce today...a non-profit organization dedicated to creating a positive environment where business, community and people thrive.

Next week: meet the candidates for Morrow/Umatilla Circuit Judge, noon, Kate's Pizzeria, Tuesday, April 16. The public is welcome to attend.

HOLLYWOOD SALVAGE SALE

USDA Forest Sale
Umatilla National Forest
Heppner Ranger District
Morrow County, Oregon

On April 4, 1996, Heppner District Ranger, Delanne Ferguson, made a decision to implement Alternative 2 of the Hollywood Salvage Sale EA. This project will salvage harvest 227 acres and commercial thin/salvage 64 acres for about 1.3 MMBF of wood products. Of the 291 acres harvested, 205 acres are located in the Texas Butte Roadless Area. All harvest activity in the roadless area will take place from existing roads.

Alternative 2 will improve forest health and vigor, reduce fuel loadings and the potential of catastrophic fires, promote seral species better suited to these sites, and accelerate regeneration which will facilitate new wildlife habitat.

The associated Decision Notice, response to public comments, and analysis file are available upon request from the Umatilla National Forest, Heppner Ranger District, P.O. Box 7, Heppner, OR 97836.

This timber sale has an identifiable salvage component and qualifies as a "salvage timber sale" as described in the provisions of subsection 2001(e) of Public Law 104-19. Under this legislation, the decision to implement this salvage timber sale is not subject to appeal.
