Nordic Club concludes season

The Arbuckle Nordic Club concluded its season with a meeting on March 27. The consensus of the group was that although they had an "absolutely crummy snow year", they still had an enjoyable year.

The group agreed to plan next year's outings around an interest survey conducted by Blue Mountain Community College Morrow County coordinator Ann Morter. Steve Brownfield and John Edmundson agreed to head up the instruction effort.

Club members decided that they would not actively work on setting up a use agreement with the Forest Service for the Ditch Creek Guard Station because of the availability of the Tullis and Hughes mountain cabins.

Mark Tullis was elected chairman, Tony Doherty, vice chairman, and Rene Devin, secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting of the club will be scheduled as needed.

Rodeo Club competes at McMinnville

The Heppner-Condon High School Rodeo Club has changed its name to the "Columbia Basin High School Rodeo Club." The club has members from Heppner, Condon, Ione, The Dalles, Maupin, Fossil and Arlington. "Both the girls' and boys' teams are having a fantastic year," said a club spokesperson.

Following are results of the McMinnville High School Rodeo held on March 6-7:

Barrels-first Annie Hisler, sixth Lexi Matteson, ninth Tiffanie Munkers.

Poles-first Annie Hisler.

Goat tying-fourth Tiffanie Munkers, eighth Lexi Matteson.

Cutting-fourth Angela Munkers.

Bareback riding-third Nate Philbin.

Saddlebronc-third Tyson Shoemaker, tie seventh and eighth Ty Wilkins and Nate Philbin.

Steerwresting-fourth Justin Matteson.

Calf roping-sixth Justin Matteson.

Team roping-fourth Lexi Matteson and Brian Knowles, seventh Justin Matteson.

The next high school rodeo will be held in Milton-Freewater April 20-21.

For more information on high school rodeo, contact Mary Ann Munkers, 989-8488, or Rita Rattray, Condon.

Ione Topic Club has new books

The Ione Topic Club has several new books in this spring, including biographies of Albert Schweitzer, Ernest Hemingway, Nelson Mandela and Jane Goodall. Other new books include some non-fiction for junior high age children on animals, the English language as a global language and space travel. New fiction books for the same age group on sports are also available.

HCC to discuss Heppner housing

The Heppner Coordinating Council (HCC) will meet on Tuesday, April 23, at 7:30 a.m. at the Heppner Ranger District.

The main topic of discussion will be housing in Heppner, including the HEDC-Port of Morrow Lakeview subdivision, the urban growth boundary and zoning, the housing rehabilitation program and the general status of the real estate business in south Morrow County.

Invited discussion leaders include Greg Smith from the Port of Morrow, Mike Armato from the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Cyde Estes from the Heppner Planning Commission, Gary Marks, Heppner city manager, and Sharon Lewis from Heritage Realty.

The public is welcome to attend all meetings of the HCC.

Arts and Crafts club to meet

Members of the Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Club will meet for lunch Wednesday, April 24, at 1 p.m. at the Heppner bowling alley. The meeting will follow at 1:30 p.m.

Plans will be made for two upcoming workshops and a bus trip to the High Desert museum in Bend.

Guests are welcome to attend the meeting.
