

Forms available for alumni golf tourney

Entry forms for this year's Heppner High School (HHS) Alumni Golf Tournament are now available at Murray's Drugs in Heppner. The tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, July 6-7, at Willow Creek Country Club in Heppner. A dinner for the participants is planned for Saturday evening.

All HHS alumni, their spouses and past and present HHS educators are invited to register. Entries must be received by Saturday, June 15. Participation will be limited to the first 180 paid registrants.

Tournament format will feature a scramble, where each member of a five person group tees off, then hits again from the best shot and so on until the ball is in the cup. "This is a great way for people of all skill levels to play without pressure and enjoy the game," said a committee spokesperson. Winners of the tournament will have their names and a team photo placed on a plaque that will be displayed in the trophy case at the high school.

Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the HHS Alumni Fund, which supports activities for Heppner youth.

The committee is still asking local alumni for help in compiling a list of former classmates who might be interested in participating so that entry forms may be mailed to them. To submit names for registration mailing, or for more information, contact John and Sonja McCabe, P.O. Box 81, Heppner, OR 97836, 676-5231; or David and Patti Allstott, P.O. Box 371, Heppner, 676-5216.

Trip planned to Imperial China exhibit

The Morrow County Unified Recreation District (MURD), in cooperation with the Morrow County Museum (MCM), is sponsoring a bus excursion to visit The Imperial Tombs of China exhibit at the Portland Art Museum on Saturday, June 22.

Two hundred and fifty objects spanning 25 centuries, seven dynasties and nine provinces tell of the grandeur and cultural life of Imperial China. The Portland exhibition will be the only west coast showing of these treasures before they return to their home.

The MURD has arranged for tickets and transportation for Morrow County residents to visit the exhibition at 11:15 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. A bus will leave Heppner at 6:30 a.m., with stops in Lexington and Lone to pick up passengers. Another bus will leave Irrigon at 7 a.m. with a passenger pick up in Boardman. The museum recommends that visitors allow an hour and a half to see the exhibition (audio tape self-guided tours are included with admission). Passengers will re-enter the buses at 2 p.m. for the return trip.

Participants will be responsible only for their own meals and personal expenditures, said Marsha Sweek, MCM director. A mid-trip break is planned at Hood River on the way to Portland so travelers may get a drink or snack, or they may wish to "brown bag" a snack to tide them over. There is limited food service available at the museum and several restaurants are within walking distance of the museum. A meal stop is scheduled at Cascade Locks on the return trip.

Registration for the Imperial Tombs bus excursion will be on a first come-first served basis for each bus. People interested in registering for either bus may do so by calling the Morrow County Museum, 676-5524, May 20-24, from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Messages may be left on the answering machine. Include name and phone number and which bus is being requested. Calls will be returned in the order in which they are received. A waiting list will be established for each bus in the event of full booking.

Children ages 5-18 are welcome to attend, but must be accompanied by their parents. Adult participants must provide a photocopy of their driver's license within three days of registration as proof of Morrow County residency.

Hazardous waste collection slated

Businesses and organizations with small amounts of hazardous waste will have an opportunity to dispose of their hazardous waste safely and legally at a collection event scheduled for Saturday, May 18, in Heppner. The conditionally exempt generators (CEGs) collection event is sponsored in connection with a household hazardous waste collection event also scheduled May 18 in Heppner. Waste from businesses will not be accepted at the household event.

Registration is now open for the event, sponsored by the city of Heppner and the Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ). Businesses must register by Monday, May 6. For more information and to obtain applications, contact the DEQ in Pendleton at 278-4622, or toll-free, 1-800-452-4011.

Participation is limited to businesses that generate less than 220 pounds (about 25 gallons) of hazardous waste per month. DEQ classifies such businesses as CEGs. Typical CEGs include auto repair shops, dry cleaners, machine shops, farmers, ranchers, laboratories, printers, schools and local governments. Hazardous waste generated by CEGs includes materials such as paints, solvents, pesticides and other wastes that may be ignitable, toxic or corrosive.

Participating businesses pay part of the disposal cost, which will range from $3 per gallon to $3 per pound, depending on the type of hazardous waste. DEQ pays the first $25 for each business.

To participate, businesses must register in advance with DEQ and certify that they are CEGs. DEQ will then notify businesses of the time and place to bring their waste. The event is not limited to businesses from Heppner-businesses outside the Heppner area may also participate.
