We sincerely thank all those members of the many committees who helped accomplish a wonderful Centennial Sunday, April 21, 1996, at the lone United Church of Christ (IUCC).

It would be difficult to name names, but all of you did a fantastic job carrying out the various assignments. We especially congratulate the Board of Trustees and the Landscaping Committee, who made us very proud of all the improvements they made to the buildings and grounds. We are grateful to the former ministers, who took part, and to Darrell and Anna Lee James, for special music. A big thank you to the Reverend Lea Mathieu, who helped with suggestions for arrangements, and to Don Bristow, who was a great Master of Ceremonies in the afternoon. Thank you all very much.
