

Community choir concert May 19

The South Morrow Community Choir spring concert 1996 will be held Sunday, May 19 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner at 7 p.m. The director is Deborah Wryn, lone, and accompanist is Sharla Erich, Heppner.

The choir is doing a varied selection of sacred and secular music. Some of the selections include a spiritual titled "Keep Your Lamps," a 16th century madrigal "Psallite" that is sung in a combination of Latin and German. Another selection is a 15th century Canzonetta titled "O Bella Fusa (The Spinning Wheel)".

The concert will also feature a few lighter, secular numbers, one which includes Erich, string bass, Sarah Carlson, flufe, and Andrea Miles on the piano performing a song titled "Song of the Sea." Another number is from "Les Miserables," "Bring Him Home."

During the intermission, two local youths will be performing. Andrea Miles, a Heppner senior, will be playing a piano solo, "Reverie," by Claude Debussy. She has been a piano student of Wryn's for the past five years.

Matt Jepsen, a Heppner eighth grader, will play "Sonata in B Flat Major" by W.A. Mozart on this trumpet. He will be accompanied by Wryn. Jepsen performed this piece for the District Solo and Ensemble Concert this past March.

There is no admission for the concert, but donations will be accepted. A reception will be held at St. Patrick's Parish Hall following the concert.

Class of '56 to celebrate 40th reunion

Heppner's class of 1956 will celebrate their 40th reunion July 6-7. The weekend will be highlighted by a dinner at the Heppner Elks Club on Saturday and a Sunday brunch at LaVerne and Ginger Keithley's home. According to Judy Wright Buschke, co-chairperson of the event, 35 former members of the class have indicated they will attend. At least six members of the faculty are also expected to attend. Parents of the class have also been invited.

Wright pointed out that planning for the event has been underway for the past six months. She has located 52 of the 55 members associated with the class. George F. Little, Fred R. Lynch and Dale Stager are still unaccounted for. Wright said she would appreciate addresses or any other information which might provide a lead on these missing classmates.

The reunion committee is preparing a "yearbook" to be distributed at the reunion, which will provide personal updates on individual members of the class. Wright says based on the biographical sketches she has received to date, the new yearbook should provide some "interesting" reading. "An amusing video account of the class, based on photos, newspaper accounts, vintage 8 mm home movies, mug shots and police artist rendering, is also in production," said Wright.

MCM program on China exhibit May 20

The Morrow County Museum (MCM) will host a slide/talk program on the legacy of Chinese Imperial Tomb art at the museum on Monday, May 20, at 7 p.m. Designed to provide background for "The Imperial Tombs of China," the Portland Art Museum's exhibit, the program will be presented by art historian Ann Wetherell.

"From May 15 to Sept. 15, the Portland Art Museum will be host to what is probably the most breathtaking exhibition of Chinese art ever sent to the United States," said MCM director Marsha Sweek. "Featuring priceless artifacts from 25 centuries of Chinese history, the 'Imperial Tombs of China' exhibit includes such treasures as a jade burial suit sewn with gold thread, a Dragon and Phoenix Empress crown and life-size terra cotta clay warriors."

For more information about the slide program or about the planned bus excursion to see the "Imperial Tombs of China" exhibit on Saturday, June 22, sponsored by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District, call the museum at 676-5524.
