CARD OF THANKS

We'd like to thank our many friends and relatives for making our 50th anniversary most memorable! Thank you for the gifts, money, flowers, many lovely cards and food donated toward the potluck. Special thanks to everyone who helped before, during and after the party, for their help in decorating the Spray Grange Hall, the special music by Tom Holly and his group.
To our children, Tommy, Brenda, Vicki and George II for honoring us with the party and a video-cam recorder! What a surprise! Tommy, you can keep a secret! To George II, as chairman of the party, you did an excellent job and most of it was planned via telephone!
To our many friends who were unable to attend but remembered us by phone calls, cards and good wishes. Each of you were an important part in making our day so special. A lot of you traveled many miles, some from California and Washington. We felt so humble and honored by your presence.
To each of you, a Big THANK YOU! We had a great time!
In appreciation,
George and AnnaMae Steagall 5-29-1p

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of the people who took advantage of our planned trip to Isaquah and other points of interest. You are indeed a fine group of people.
Morrow County Historical Society and Mid-Columbia Bus 5-29-1c
I would like to thank all the parents and friends that volunteered in my classroom this year. Their assistance truly improves the learning environment in our school.
Eleanor Gonty, all year; Kay Proctor and Shelley Wight, first semester; George Nairns and Shannon Salyers, second semester, were regulars seen helping nearly every week. Kathy Carlson, Sheryl Delveaux, Pepper Farens, Linda Kenny, Vicky Rayburn, Al and Rae Trachsel, Dan and Sandra Van Liew, Pam Worden, Iva Zimmerman and Sharon Bruce were occasional helpers. Four special people also supported me daily: Carol Goodyear, Pam Piper, Donna Roy and Kathy Cutsforth.
