

D.A.'s Report

The District Attorney's office at the courthouse in Heppner reports handling the following business during the past week:

July 10: Aaron Alexander Anello, 17, Chehalis, WA, is scheduled to be sentenced as an adult in Morrow County Court. Because of Anello's extensive juvenile record, the Oregon Department of Corrections is recommending that Anello serve 17.8 years according to Morrow County district attorney Earl Woods, Jr.

Anello was convicted May 2 of Kidnap I and Robbery I stemming from an incident that occurred March 19 when Anello and Tyson Doolin, 19, also Chehalis, abducted Brett Vernon Thomas of Kennewick, WA near the on ramp to I-84 at the Boardman interchange.

According to Woods, Anello and Doolin were hitchhiking with two young women when Thomas stopped to give them a ride.

Doolin pulled a pistol on Thomas and Anello took a firearm belonging to Thomas that was in the vehicle and pointed it at Thomas.

Thomas was released near the interchange at Hwy 74 and I-84 before Anello and Doolin were captured by the police.

Woods said that Anello has filed, with Morrow County Circuit Court, an extensive brief which challenges Oregon State's newly-enacted Ballot Measure 11, which subjects juveniles to adult jurisdiction in the instance of very serious crimes.

Woods says that Doolin is expected to receive 15 years in prison because his record extensive record.

Anello will be in the Oregon State Penitentiary pending the appeal process in the Oregon Court of Appeals and the Oregon Supreme Court.

July 11: Donald Gene Hedley, 66, Irrigon, will be sentenced in Morrow County Court. Hedley was convicted June 13 of three independent charges of Sodomy I with a seven year old boy.

According to Woods, the Oregon Department of Corrections is recommending that Hedley serve 29 years, four months.

Potluck planned by area churches

Area churches have planned a potluck for Sunday, July 14 beginning at 4 p.m. with a softball game at the lone city park. Dinner will follow at 6 p.m.

Those attending are asked to bring a main dish and a salad or dessert.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

The 4th of July started off with a bang for most of us, some more than others. On the Hughes Ranch, it was curtains for a bull and cow as a bolt of lightning struck the tall pine they lay beneath. Not your ideal fireworks. The Paddy Wagon, known to some drivers as "the big green bomb", did make it to lone, thanks to swift work of Cal Sherman, D & L and driver Cara Osmin. The chamber is looking for additional volunteers to experience driving the Paddy Wagon as summer events kick off around the area. It's even more of a kick if the leprechauns go along.

As a result of Heppner being featured in "Great Bike Rides in Eastern Oregon and Washington", the chamber is getting calls from cyclists almost weekly. Seven people, two from Australia, will be coming through Heppner in August as they travel from Joseph to Eugene. They are on a museum tour and look forward to visiting the Morrow County Museum and riding the "Heppner Rollers" (name given to our rolling hills in the book).

There's a ghost of a chance that a film company might choose Heppner as a movie sight for a Johnnie Depp movie. Last Wednesday was a marathon, as photos were taken, driven to hour photo in Hermiston, identified, brochures thrown in and put in overnight mail in the nick of time. People in LA think this is all at our fingertips and don't realize some advance notice would be great when driving distance involves about 150 miles to meet the assignment request. Now we wait.

Next week Chamber will welcome the 1996 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court and have an update from the Fair Board and the Rodeo Committee as we prepare for fair and rodeo. Parade entries have already started coming in.... 'Let'ER Grow in Morrow County.

Thought for the week: "Never lie awake at night asking yourself questions you cannot answer".

Senior Center News

There were 84 people present for the senior dinner July 3. Five meals were home delivered and three were taken out. Jeannette Townsend volunteered for kitchen and clean up help.

Three door prizes were given instead of a free meal ticket. Winning patriotic lapel pins were Irene Schroeder, Laura Searle and Iva Booker. Ralph Struthers and Bill Cox set the tables, Lynn Bibby was the hostess, Eleanor Gonty and Barb Struthers were at the sign in table and Howard Gilliam was the master of ceremonies. Father Hebert gave the blessing. Katherine Hoskins played the piano accompaniment for three patriotic songs. Hearing aid assistance was given and blood pressures were taken before the meal.

The menu for July 17 will be hot turkey sandwiches, whipped potatoes with gravy, peas, peaches and peanut butter cookies. Members of the Seventh-Day Adventist and Nazarene churches will serve.

One table of pinochle was in play Friday afternoon. No movie was shown Sunday evening.

The bus will depart for the Milton-Freewater Meal Site at 9 a.m. Friday, July 12, and to the Condon Meal Site Thursday, July 25, at 10:30 a.m.

Other dates to remember are: Exercise Tues. and Thurs. 10 a.m.; Wed. blood pressures taken, 11 a.m. senior meal, noon; Fri., cards, 2 p.m.; Sun. movie, 7 p.m..

Two tenants of the St. Patrick's Senior Apartments are no longer at Pioneer Memorial. Darlene Arrington was taken to Hermiston Good Samaritan Center Wed., July 3, and Rachel Harnett was taken from the nursing home by ambulance to Walla Walla Saturday July 6.

Guitar lessons to begin

July 13

Guitar lessons, given by Carl Oakes of LaGrande, will begin Saturday, July 13, at 1 p.m. at the Morrow County Museum in Heppner.

The lessons will be underwritten by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District, said spokesman Marlene Currin.

Currin says the class is nearly full with 12 students presently signed up. Oakes will take up to 15 students. Call Currin 676-9711 if you are interested in guitar lessons. The eight-week session will end August 31. A music book for the class will be $8.

Oakes is studying for his masters at Eastern Oregon State College. He was one of 12 guitarists, internationally, chosen to participate in a masters program in Rome. "The Heppner Community is very fortunate to have this calibre of artist presenting lessons to us," said Currin. The M.C. Unified Recreation District asks that a recital for the community be given at the end of the lessons.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST A RELEASE OF FUNDS

City of Heppner
188 W Willow Street
Heppner OR 97836
Telephone: (541)676-9618
TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about July 27, 1996 the above-named city will request the Oregon Economic Development Department to release federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93-383), as amended, for the following project:

City of Heppner Housing Rehabilitation Program
An Environmental Review Record has been made by the above-named city which documents the environmental review of the project. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request.

The city will undertake the project described above with Grant funds from the Oregon Economic Development Department (OEDD), under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended. The city is certifying to OEDD that the city and Robert Jepsen or designee, in his official capacity as Mayor, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is upon its approval, the city may use the Grant funds, and OEDD will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

OEDD will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following bases: (a) That the certification was not in fact executed by the chief executive officer or other officer or applicant approved by OEDD; or (b) that applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision, finding, or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58), and may be addressed to OEDD at 775 Summer St. NE, Salem, OR 97310
