Guitar recital planned August 31

A guitar recital will be held Saturday, Aug. 31, at 3:30 p.m. at the St. Patrick's Senior Center dining room in Heppner. The public is invited to attend and there is no charge for admission.

The recital will be performed by 15 students of the guitar class which has been held each Saturday for the past eight weeks in Heppner. The instructor is Carl Oakes of La Grande.

"This has been a tremendous opportunity for the guitarists in Heppner this summer," said local organizer Marlene Currin. Oakes is studying for his master degree at Eastern Oregon State College and was available to give the lessons in Heppner.

He was also one of 12 guitarists who studied in Rome this summer.

More than 15 students wanted to register for the lessons, but the class size was limited to that amount. "We were lucky to get him and I believe the students all learned a great deal. No only did they learn to play, but had a good time doing so," Currin said.

The Morrow County Unified Recreation District sponsored the lessons. "All the students, young and old, were glad to have this opportunity. The guitar is an instrument that one plays all their life, and is versatile; a person can play alone or with a group," added Currin.

Taekwon-Do students place at Federation tournament

Three students from Kim's Taekwon-Do school in Heppner recently participated in an International Taekwon-Do Federation tournament. The tournament was held at Mountain Home, Idaho, with over 130 competitors from four western states.

Adam Perez finished first in men's white belt fighting and second in the senior men's beginning fighting division. Jamie Perez finished second in both women's white belt fighting and women's white belt forms. Matt Browning finished second in men's white belt forms and third in men's white belt fighting.

Tournaments primarily consist of three events: fighting (non-contact point sparring), forms (a sequential set of movements against an imaginary opponent), and board breaking (restricted to brown belts and above in rank).

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 85 people present for the senior dinner and three meals were home delivered. Members of the Episcopal Church served. Shelley Dyer won the free meal ticket. The children from the Seventh-day Adventist Church Bible school sang three songs before the meal. The seniors appreciate having the children coming to sing.

The Senior Center Board of Directors met in the center office before lunch. There was hearing aid assistance and blood pressures taken before the meal and the menu committee met in the dining room. The Nutrition Site Committee met in the dining room following the meal.

The menu for Wednesday, Aug. 21 will be pizza, green salad, mixed vegetables, cucumbers and onions, and cookies. Members of the Christian Church will serve. There was one table of cards in play Friday afternoon. Seven seniors were present for the Sunday movie, "Beethoven's 2nd." Senator Ron Wyden was at the Senior Center Sunday afternoon, Aug. 11, for a town hall meeting.

Six seniors signed up for the bus trip to the AAA meeting at the Irrigon meal site Aug. 12. Gerald Bergstrom was the bus driver.

The bus will depart Heppner at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, Aug. 15, for the trip to the Hermiston meal site.

There is still a need for more volunteers to help at the senior pie booth at the fair on Thursday and Friday. Call the senior office, 676-9030, or Irene Schroeder, 676-9132, if you can help, or donate a pie.

Other dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressures taken, 11 a.m., senior meal, noon; Friday cards, 2 p.m.; Sunday movie, 7 p.m.
