Will Oregon Be The First State
To Outlaw Livestock Watering?

Ballot Measure 38, the so-called "clean stream" initiative would do just that. Initiative 38 would ban Emu, Ostrich, Parrots, Parakeets, Horses, Mules, Ass, Jenny, Cattle, Goats, Sheep, Llamas, and Pigs from watering within the state's boundary of all private, federal & state land.

IT'S TIME TO CIRCLE THE WAGONS!

Rally against Measure 38—Come on foot or horseback and join a PEACEFUL EDUCATIONAL RALLY from the state fairgrounds to the Capitol on Friday, Oct. 11, 1996, 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Overnight camping accommodations for people and horses are available at the Fairgrounds for $5-$10 per night.

NO ONE ASSOCIATED IN ANY WAY WITH ANIMALS IN OREGON WILL BE SPARED IF THIS INITIATIVE PASSES

An organization meeting will be held in

Carl McDaniel celebrates 95th

Carl McDaniel, resident of the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home in Heppner, celebrated his 95th birthday on Wednesday, Aug. 7.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to say "Thank You" to all who sent cards, flowers, to the people who came down and the many phone calls Kenny received during his long stay in Portland. Also thank you to Dale for fixing my doors after I locked myself out of my pickup; thank you, Connie and Kenny for the welcome home party, and all the family and friends that came down for the dinner and getting home greetings. It was such a surprise and appreciated very much. Thank you all again; there is no better "cheer up" than great family and friends.

God Bless You,
 Kenny and Candy

The Ione Grand Squares wish to thank the Les Schwab staff for the use of their electric hookup and space to dance following the parade on Saturday, Aug. 17. We were unable to continue dancing on our float due to sound equipment that quit working. 8-28-1c

A special card of thanks to Pioneer Memorial's ambulance and EMT crew for getting Kerry Rilling to the hospital. Thanks to the ER crew for getting him on a fast recovery.

A special thank you to Kathie Maben for driving me to Portland to be with Kerry when he arrived. To Adam Perez, Mark Miller and my parents, Harlan and Linda Dunaway for staying with Kerry until Airline arrived. To my brother, Dwayne, and Jeanine Dilley for searching all over to find me, and to Merry Brannon for the wonderful dinner she had prepared for us.

We would also like to thank all of our friends and family for their concerns, cards, flowers and support they gave. Most of all, we are thanking his Guardian Angels for being with him.

Thank you to the HHS football team and Heppner Lions for all their hard work cleaning Willow Creek through the City of Heppner. Although certain sections are cleaned yearly, we appreciate having the whole stream cleaned for flood control.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to everyone in helping our family through this most difficult time following the boys' accident. Your thoughts, prayers, phone calls, flowers, cards, visits, food and genuine concern will be something we will never forget.

We will be forever grateful to Chris, Tony, Truitt and Shaun for taking care of the injured boys and choosing to send Brian to the hospital as soon as possible. That decision possibly saved his life. Thanks to Pioneer Memorial Hospital's excellent staff of doctors, nurses and everyone who assisted in taking care of Brian.

A special thank you for Ken and Kaedene and everyone who took part in the lamb auction. Also, many thanks to the Bank of Eastern Oregon and all who have given so generously.

We would like to thank our neighbors and friends who helped us on the ranch. This enabled Butch to be with us at the hospital which was so crucial in Brian's recovery. The "Welcome Home" barbecue organized by the football coaches and friends was so thoughtful. Brian enjoyed seeing all his friends. Thanks, kids, for being so great.

There are many challenges and lessons in life we all face. Although this has been the most trying, we have never been so sure of how lucky we are to live in such a wonderful and caring community. Words will never describe how truly grateful we are.

Sincerely,
 Butch, Marry, Brian
 and Blake Knowles

Chamber Chatter
 By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

Have you noticed a fresher look to the "Welcome to Heppner" signs? Thank Heppner Chamber of Commerce president John Edmondson, who got caught perched on a ladder on the outskirts of town the other morning, stripping, painting and varnishing.

Have you ever wanted to visit Japan? I hadn't until I had the good fortune to win the "Brief Message From The Heart Contest". What a wonderful experience, a memory that will last forever. Chamber again has contest entry blanks available. All you need to do is express in 25 words or less a message to your father. It's all about Dad. I'm living, breathing proof that it is possible to win with no strings attached and to experience a totally different culture while being honored for something so simple as expressing your love. Stop by the office. The deadline is Sunday, Sept. 15.

Mark your calendars now. The Chamber of Commerce Candidates' Forum has been scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 16. This is a great opportunity to be an informed voter.

Thought for the week: Live your life like a fried egg, with your sunny side up.

During the first 15 minutes of the program, Umatilla/Morrow Center coordinator, Debbie Lee, will distribute and discuss materials that will be referred to during the program. The rest of the session will allow prospective students to listen and talk to representatives from several college departments, using the interactive ED-NET television system.

For more information about this or any of Eastern's programs, contact Lee at 276-5776 or Eastern's Division of Extended Programs, 962-3378.
