St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 91 people present for the senior meal Sept. 11, and four meals were home delivered. Members of the Catholic Church served. Irene Anhorn won the free meal ticket.

Gordon Smith, candidate for the U.S. Senate, had dinner with the seniors and visited afterwards in the sitting room. Jane Rawlins gave a poetry reading from a Gilbert and Sullivan production during the meal. Blood pressures were taken before the meal. The Senior Board met at 1 p.m.

The menu for the birthday dinner Wednesday, Sept. 25 will be chicken and rice casserole, peas, fruit salad, rolls and birthday cake. Members of the Baptist Church will serve.

The bus did not go to the Hermiston meal site Thursday, Sept. 12, as driver Ed Baker had car trouble on the way in and it wasn't possible to get another driver on short notice.

The bus is scheduled to go to Hardman, Saturday, Sept. 28, so anyone wishing to go to the oyster feed should sign up in the Senior Center office as soon as possible. The bus leaves at 3:30 p.m.

One table of pinocle was play Friday afternoon. Six seniors enjoyed the movie, "The Cure," Sunday evening.

Not enough people signed up for the trip to the Hermiston meal site to take the bus Monday, so a few went by car to the "I've Never Been Old Before" workshop and potluck lunch.

Sylvia McDaniel is getting moved into her apartment at St. Patrick's. Welcome to the St. Pat family, Sylvia.

Dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressure clinic, 11 a.m., birthday dinner, noon; Friday cards, 2 p.m.; Sunday movie, 7 p.m.

Do not forget the bus trip to Hardman, Saturday, Sept. 28, at 3:30 p.m.

Heppner Fillies do well in Let'r'Buck tourney

The Fillies' varsity volleyball team played well at the Let'r'Buck tournament in Pendleton, Friday, Sept. 13. In this tournament, each team played two games against the other teams in their pool, the first team to 12 being the winner.

Heppner won their first two games against the Pendleton B-team, 12-1, 12-2, with Jessica Van Winkle scoring 11 straight points to clinch the win. Heppner went on to split with the La Grande JVs, 12-14, 12-5 and Baker City's JV squad, 11-13, 12-5.

Achieving first place status in pool play, the Fillies advanced to bracket play, where the scoring was slightly altered. In bracket play, each team plays one game to 15, with a scoring cap of 17 points. Losers in the first round of play are eliminated.

The first round bracket matched the Fillies with the Lewiston JVs. The battle was hard fought, but the Heppner squad was finally overcome 16-17.

Team serving percentage for the day was 116 of 145, for 80 percent. Amber Peck (9 of 9) and Jaci Hughes (2 of 2) led the serving percentage with 100 percent success, followed by Van Winkle (11 of 13), 85 percent, and Annie Hisler (29 of 35), 83 percent.

HJSH defeats Yoncalla, 14-6

By Lonnie Rill

The Yoncalla Eagles were swept this weekend by Heppner at the junior high, JV, and varsity levels. The junior high started out the day with a victory over the Eagles. The game was capped by an interception returned for a touchdown by seventh grader Kelly Paullus.

Booster Club plans tailgate party

The Heppner Booster Club will hold a tailgate party for the Heppner vs. Weston-McEwen football game on Friday, Sept. 20, at the Morrow County Fairgrounds from 5-7 p.m.

Dinner will include barbecue hamburgers, hot dogs, chili burgers or chili dogs, with chips, brownies and a drink.

Cost for a hamburger or cheeseburger meal is $3; chili burger meal, $4; chili dog meal, $2.50; and hot dog meal, $1.50. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Nine girls represented Heppner on Friday: Lexi Matteson, Hisler, Kathleen Greenup, Hughes, Mindy Binschus, Stormy Howard, Peck, Van Winkle and Jill Barber.

Coach Terri Gentry says she likes what she has seen in her Fillies so far this year. "These tournaments have been really helpful. They (the tournaments) last all day, the girls get tired and that is when I can see what we need to work on. When fatigue sets in, the mistakes are usually a result of a weakness. These girls are quick, strong and work well together-I expect us to do well this year."

The Fillies saw their first league action on Tuesday, Sept. 17, as the varsity and JV teams traveled to Wahtonka. Thursday, Sept. 19, finds all of the volleyball teams on the home court for league play against Pilot Rock. The games start at 5 p.m., with the C-team playing first, followed by the JVs and varsity.

On Friday, Sept. 20, the C-team will play Weston-McEwen's C-team in Heppner at 5 p.m., prior to the varsity football match-up.

On Saturday, Sept. 21, Heppner is hosting a JV tournament, which will include both Heppner's JV and C-team, as well as six other teams. Play begins Saturday at 9:30 a.m. and will last most of the day.

Newspaper cancels TV guide

The Oregonian newspaper has discontinued sending its TV Click tv guide out with the Sunday paper, and a lot of people in Heppner are upset about it.

Calls to the Oregonian were not returned, but anyone wishing to complain can call 1-800-452-1420.

The move was apparently made to save printing costs and will affect eight Eastern Oregon counties.
