Letters to the Editor

Sherer deserves your vote

To the Editor:
I believe an individual that has a record of doing one of the best jobs possible in supporting what was good and profitable for Morrow County deserves your vote.

I worked with Margo Sherer over the years and know she has always kept first and foremost what was best for the Morrow County taxpayers. She has done her job in the past with your best interest being her first consideration. She has the knowledge and the background to continue to represent Morrow County in a professional and profitable manner. Your vote for Margo Sherer will help to assure that our county treasurer's office continues to run efficiently and be beneficial to all.

Re-elect Sherer

To the Editor:
I would like to encourage the people of Morrow County to mark their ballot on November 5 to re-elect Margo Sherer as Morrow County Treasurer. I have known and worked closely with Margo in Soroptimist International, a business women's service organization well known in our community for 48 years. Also having served together in the offices of our club, we've worked closely over the years. Margo is highly accomplished as treasurer for our county and SIA, now serving her sixth term as treasurer of the club. She knows her job well, is asked to advise on financial decisions and is one of the most organized persons I have known.

I feel re-electing Margo to this position is a continued asset to our county government. Mr. Jim Kinzer from Salem apparently does not personally know Margo because her situation in that matter has not one thing to do with electing this well-qualified lady.

Far from fair

To the Editor:
Let's not be caught sitting on the fence. Now is the time to let our urban friends and family know that Measure 38 is destructive. It will destroy existing cooperative efforts and heighten the level of conflict between urban and rural interests.

The environmental groups sponsoring this initiative were clever in appealing this measure to an ignorant voter. The ballot title is misleading and the proposed law drafted in a manner that leads voters to think it is fair and reasonable. It is far from fair; it is extreme.

Don't sit back and let your fellow voters be misled. I hope you will urge others to vote no on Ballot Measure 38.

Sincerely,

In support of John Wenholtz

To the Editor:
John Wenholtz is our best choice for Morrow County Commissioner. John is a self-made business man who has the time and devotion to spend making Morrow County a better place. John has no ax to grind; he is connected to no "group" and has no hidden agendas. When you talk to John, you may not always agree with him, but you will know two things. First, he is not a politician who tells you what he thinks you want to hear; he will tell you as he sees it.

Second, while he may not agree, he will listen to what you have to say and will think about it. Consequently, while John is definitely not wishy-washy, I have seen him change his mind when presented with good, solid evidence. What more could we ask for? John Wenholtz deserves our votes for county commissioner.

Wenholtz well suited

To the Editor:
John Wenholtz, a candidate for Morrow County Commissioner, has a background in business, construction and agriculture, and is well suited to provide leadership for all areas of the county.

I have had the opportunity to work with John on various committees and have observed his involvement in numerous community activities over the past twenty years. During that time, he has shown he has the qualities necessary to make an excellent commissioner. He possesses good common sense and intelligence, is capable of making sound decisions, treats others with fairness and honesty and is a good listener. These attributes, along with his dedication to public service, qualify him as an excellent choice for county commissioner.

John Wenholtz has earned by vote for Morrow County Commissioner.

Sincerely,

The group has performed for audiences from Montana, Minnesota, Nevada, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

Music and songs are selected from the singers' personal life experiences that were especially uplifting and added to their spiritual growth and joy, said a church news release.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 71 people present for the senior dinner Oct. 9. Three meals were home delivered and two were taken out. Members of the Episcopal Church served. Laura Searle won the meal ticket. The Senior Board met after the meal.

The menu for Wednesday, Oct. 23 will be chicken casserole with rice, peas, fruity jello salad, rolls and cake. Members of the Christian Church will serve. Dyann Swanson of R.S.V.P. will be at the meal.

The Health Fair held on Oct. 10 was successful. There were not as many booths as in previous years, but a good crowd attended. All day there was a steady stream of young people and seniors lined up for flu shots. Door prizes were won by Virginia Stillman, Marianne Kahl, Florence Green, Frank Anderson, Dick Schmidt, Elma Scott and Merritt Gray.

Ruby Steers made the rolls and cinnamon rolls. The cheese broccoli and chicken rice soups were made and served by Carol Mitchell and a crew from the AAA. Ruth Bergstrom registered people, and Rose Marie Buschke and Eleanor Gonty also helped out.

One table of cards was in play Friday afternoon. There was no movie Sunday evening.

Dates to remember: Tuesday and Thursday exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday blood pressures taken, 11 a.m., senior meal, noon; Friday cards, 2 p.m.; Sunday movie, 7 p.m.
