It's time to say a big thank you to all of the individuals and all of the businesses who have so generously contributed their dollars to "Don't Fence Oregon," the Agricultural Alliance's campaign against Measure 38. Many thanks to those who displayed our posters and flyers in their windows and on their counters, to all those who wrote so many letters, made phone calls, spoke to groups and volunteered their time and their services to educate others to the danger and folly of Measure 38.

Your willingness to unite for a cause prompts one to say "hats off to you," Morrow County; you've done a great job! Again, thanks, everyone, for rolling up your shirtsleeves--your efforts have really made our little corner of the state stand out. Now, go out and vote no on 38 and pray enough other folks do the same!

We are most grateful to our friends and relatives for making our golden anniversary most memorable. A special thanks goes to our children and grandchildren for honoring us with the lovely reception. For the gifts, flowers, cards and written remembrances our friends and family have shared with us, we are most appreciative.

Dan Brosnan for the video recording, Verlin Denton for taking pictures, Judie Laughlin for the outstanding photography display and Tim Cundell for his excellent music deserve a special thanks.
Members of St. Patrick's Altar Society worked especially hard in preparing hundreds of deviled eggs for the reception--Garnet Huddleston, Gayle Arbogast, Gwen Healy, Pat Gentry, Rosetta Palmateer, Marjorie Blake, Berniece Lott, Betty McDonald, Marian Brosnan, Melba Miller and Irene Swanson.

We extend our special gratitude to those who prepared the hors d'oeuvres--Pat Edmondson, Suzanne Jepsen, Cam Wishart, Jan Paustian, Lynnea Sargent, Andrea Denton and Mary West. We will always remember you in a special way.

To each and every one who had a part in this celebration a BIG THANK YOU. We hope you had as glorious a time as we did. God Bless You all.

I would like to thank all of my wonderful friends and relatives for the cards and gifts for my SURPRISE 60th birthday party.

A special thanks to John for getting up in the wee hours of the morning and going to Redmond to load my gift and get it back here in time for the party, to Ted Britt for the use of his belly dump, to Donita and Karen for all of the planning and the food, to Gib for rearranging his work schedule and helping with the food, and to Don for all his help and participation. It was great.

Once again, carnival has come and gone but not without the help of some pretty great volunteers.

We had a great group of decorators this year--Patti Allstott, Bobette Lovgren, Kelly Boyer, Tonia Adams, Stacey Wainwright, Kim Armato, Kathy Britt, you ladies did an awesome job!

We would like to thank Leah Brosnan for the use of her karaoke machine which worked great for the cakewalk. Tim and Terra Adams for donating the hotdog buns, we really appreciate your support.

All the good cooks who brought the wonderful pies for the concession stand--they were very popular!

As in the past, we had a great response for our cakewalk booth. The donated items were so creative--thanks for being so generous. The kids always look forward to this booth.

We tried a new booth this year, the "fortune teller" booth. This booth was fun to do, but all the success goes to one terrific lady, Marti Michel, who "got roped into" being our fortune teller. She did a better job than we had ever hoped for and kept the kids coming back for more; thanks, Marti. You are a friend to us and the kids!

Thanks, Linda and Georgia for getting us through another "carnival week" of questions and "wants"--Kelly and Bill-Dan for being so cooperative. We really do appreciate your muscles!

Last, but certainly not least, a HUGE thank you to one of the most special people in town--Merry Brannon--once again she put her twisted mind to work and came up with another masterpiece. I can't imagine carnival without her and her great ideas. She puts her own family on hold and spends countless hours putting up the Haunted House. Merry really deserves to hear some big thank yous from the community for all she does to support our kids. I promise to help when Drew finally gets in school!

Thanks again. Looking forward to next year. Thanks to all the parents' club members and volunteers who stayed to help clean up!
